Armed Bandits Rob Bank Branch In Vancouver

Thrilling Pursuit Follows Robbery In Terminal City

Vancouver Bank Branch Raided and $500 Taken; Thug Fires Shot Into Floor to Keep Customers and Clerks From Interfering With Him.

Vancouver, July 18.—An armed bandit entered the branch of the Bank of Toronto at Tenth Avenue and Alma Road here at 12.30 o'clock to-day and after firing a shot into the floor to warn customers and employees to keep away, scooped up $500 from the cashier's counter and escaped in a waiting car.

A confederate had kept the car's engine running outside. The robbers' car was pursued by J. A. McRae, a motorist, and two motorcycle policemen. The gunmen raced in the direction of New Westminster.

The auto in which the bandits escaped was stolen from F. Pierce, driver for the Canadian Dollar Taxi Co., whom the robbers had tied to a tree in the brush in West Point Grey. Pierce, who freed himself after a struggle lasting nearly an hour, telephoned to the police shortly after the bank robbery.

In an effort to shake off the chase, the fleeing bandits are reported to have fired several shots at their pursuers, but at 2 o'clock the men were reported to be racing east along River Road in the direction of New Westminster. People who saw the speeding car and motor cycles report the gunmen's car had a flat tire.

From the bank the bandit's car and the pursuing auto raced along Tenth, up to Twelfth, and finally at Fifteenth and Granville, the bandit managed to lose their pursues. Almost immediately, however, another car started in pursuit, and the chase continued to the vicinity of (Concluded on Page 21)

Premier King Tours South Ontario Towns

Federal Prime Minister Will Speak in North Bay This Evening; Addressed Great Audience Yesterday Evening in Sault Ste. Marie

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 18.—Premier King is entering upon what will probably be the most strenuous period of his election campaign tour. This morning he left here for North Bay, Ont., to speak at a meeting this evening, with the probability that on the way he would address gatherings at Espanola and also, for a short time, at Sudbury. From North Bay the Prime Minister will go to Newmarket, thirty miles north of Toronto, for a meeting Saturday evening. From that meeting he will motor to Toronto and take train for Ottawa.

Yesterday evening Mr. King addressed a great audience in the Arena here and the close attention with which his speech was followed throughout indicated the keen interest in this district in the Federal election. The Premier was cheered when he arose to speak and applause frequently interrupted his remarks. (Concluded on Page 2)

FIFTY-SIX MEN LOST ON JAPAN FISHING BOATS

Tokio, July 18.—Fifty-six fishermen to-day were reported missing in two accidents not connected with the typhoon sweeping the lower archipelago. The Hishimaru, a small motorboat, went on the rocks in fog off Katsuragi, Chiba, prefecture, and sank with thirty-nine aboard. The Kotch Danu, another motor boat, sank off Shimoda with seventeen.

RECOVER FROM INJURIES
Prince Rupert, B.C., July 18.—The victims of Wednesday's crash of a New England Fish Company seaplane at Butedale, are making good recoveries. Al Hager, the most seriously injured, left the hospital and attended a luncheon of a local service club to-day.

ELECTION TO END CRISIS IN GERMANY

Reichstag Dissolved After Clash With Government; Dictatorship Until Polling

Disorderly Scenes in Chamber Mark End of Finance Bill Fight

Berlin, July 18.—Germany's political crisis of the last few days came to a dramatic climax to-day with the dissolution of the Reichstag, necessitating a general election not later than September 14 of this year.

Until the election, the Brüning Cabinet, which definitely defied the Reichstag, will continue in office, ruling under the emergency dictatorial powers conferred by the famous article forty-eight of the German constitution and authorized by President von Hindenburg.

To-day's smashing of the deadlock between the Reichstag and the ministry followed a vote against the government on the financial decree and was accompanied by disorderly scenes in the Reichstag.

It was the bachelor and bachelor maid taxes among other items in the Dietrich financial programme that precipitated the crisis.

The last general election in Germany was held in May, 1928, when representatives of no fewer than fourteen political parties obtained seats in the Reichstag, which has 490 members. The Socialists obtained a plurality of seats.

W. HANBURY WILL SPEAK AT RALLY HERE NEXT WEEK

Liberal Candidate For Burrard Will Address Victoria Meeting July 22

Joseph McKenna and Miss Ena Henderson Spoke Over CFCT This Morning

It was announced at Liberal headquarters to-day that Wilfred Hanbury, Liberal candidate for Burrard in the forthcoming Federal election, will address a big Liberal meeting here on the evening of July 22. Mr. Hanbury will be accompanied on the platform by Stuart Henderson, Victoria candidate, and C. H. O'Halloran, who is contesting the Nanaimo riding. Further details of the meeting will be made public shortly.

Considerable interest will be aroused in Mr. Hanbury's visit to Victoria. He is now waging a most aggressive campaign (Concluded on Page 21)

NATURAL GAS STRIKE IN QUEBEC

Ottawa, July 18.—A heavy flow of gas was reported to have been struck following drilling operations at Lamorne, Que. Drilling devices received here said the strike had been made at a depth of 200 feet and was roughly estimated at 500 pounds pressure to the square inch.

Beauty and Opportunity Teem Along Alberni Canal

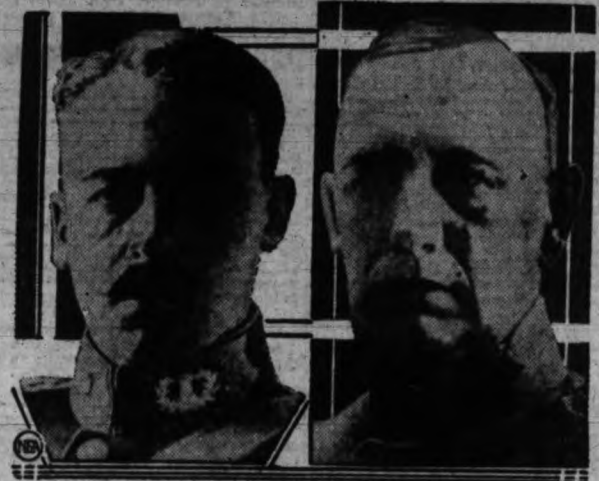

The great West Coast of Vancouver Island, its scenery and industrial activities will be featured in a special article in the Saturday Magazine Section of The Victoria Times to-morrow.

The article will be illustrated with pictures of some of the leading centres such as Ucluelet, Sechart, Hanfield Cable Station, Kildonan and Barkley Sound.

Other features of the Magazine Section of The Saturday Times will include:

How to find Planet X, that newly discovered world in the sky, 3,720 million miles away.
Outlawing of Mexican divorce null cuts into the haven for rich visitors.
No treacherous trail could baffle John Charles Fremont, tempestuous soldier, who blazed the way to Oregon, through tribes of ferocious Indians.
Inside story of the present-day society "racket" is revealed in detail by a clever society satirist.
Fossil hunting up-stream with Robert Connell.
A page of new fashions and household features for women.
Regular weekly illustrated page for the children.
A page of week-end cables from across the Atlantic.

And the four-page colored comic section.

Victor and Vanquished In Bolivia

The brief revolution which swept La Paz, capital city of Bolivia, swept aside the dual regime of Dictator Hernando Siles and Inspector-General Rudecundo Knud, shown at right, to establish a military government under General Carlos Blanco Gallardo, left. The new government is reported firmly in control.

Special Displays Are Arranged For Exhibition Here

National Art Gallery Loans Twenty-four Pictures for Provincial Fair; Provincial Government to Have Indian Exhibit; Cattle From Ontario and California in Livestock Section; Buildings Are Improved.

While the new track and grandstand will be the main improvements at the Willows fair grounds this year, the fair itself will show remarkable development over displays of other years, according to W. H. Mearns, secretary of the B.C. Agricultural Association and manager of the Provincial Exhibition.

Mr. Mearns this morning outlined the various exhibits which have already been lined up for the fair which opens August 18 and continues for one week. Especially in the livestock class there will be a noted improvement with several new farms entering their stock.

Cattle from as far east as Ontario will be entered, according to word received by Mr. Mearns to-day. The Brue Lodge Farms of Downsview, Ontario, informed the association that they will have a carload of animals in the west for the first time, and will probably show at the Victoria fair.

The state of California will be well represented in this section as well as Washington and Oregon, the rest of British Columbia, and a strong entry from Island points.

A feature of the exhibits in the manufacturers' building will be an art display forwarded from the National (Concluded on Page 21)

BENNING BUYS HOLDEN ESTATE AT ESQUIMALT

Wealthy Montrealer Moves Here to Live; Capt. Molson to Build

For a price of $40,000 cash, J. W. Benning of Montreal has bought the property of the late A. P. Luxton, E.C., at 1608 Rockland Avenue, formerly owned by Mrs. Sullivan.

Mr. Benning, who is now in the east, has been in Victoria for some time this year, and has decided to make his permanent home here. His family are millionaire oilcloth manufacturers of Montreal.

M. W. Miller of Esq. and Stephenson acted for Mr. Benning and R. G. Christy for Mrs. Holden.

Captain Hobart Molson has bought the house and grounds of the late A. P. Luxton, E.C., at 1608 Rockland Avenue, formerly owned by Mrs. Sullivan. The Luxton estate embraces five acres, running down Oakeshade Lane to Richardson Street. The house will be torn down in preparation for a new mansion Captain Molson will build, on plans being prepared by Architect W. Leonard James.

The house and grounds of the late Col. E. G. Prior at 729 Pemberton Road, have been bought by a local investor, who will remodel the place, on which Peritt Bros. contractors, have already started work.

Two $50,000 houses are being planned by local architects for Eastern United States residents who have been visiting here regularly and have decided to settle here permanently.

RUFFELL, HOLLAND AND REGAN WILL TRY FOR RIFLE PRIZE OF EMPIRE

VICTORIANS ESCAPE IN AUTO CRASH

Car Overtakes at Chase River With Party Going to Political Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. J. McHardy and Mr. and Mrs. D. Ramsay Cut and Bruised

Four Victorians, traveling to Nanaimo yesterday to hear an address by Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, narrowly escaped death when their car left the highway and overturned near Chase River.

They were: Mr. and Mrs. J. McHardy, 3430 Quadra Street.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ramsay, 2888 Heath Drive.

Severe cuts and bruises were sustained by Mr. McHardy and Mr. Ramsay, and all four passengers received treatment for minor injuries at the hospital in Nanaimo. Mr. and Mrs. McHardy returned to the city last night.

The stout hood on the sedan car is believed to have saved the occupants more serious injuries. The car rolled right over after leaving the highway, and fell down a 14-foot embankment, and it was badly dented, but not crushed, and it was driven back to the city.

Mr. Ramsay, who is campaign manager for C. H. O'Halloran, Liberal candidate in Nanaimo riding, was to attend the meeting in the interests of the candidate.

MURDER SUSPICION IS CLEARED AWAY

Jackson, Miss., July 18.—Suspicion that a Harrison County Mississippi widow was Belle Gunness, accused of murdering some fifteen men on her Indiana matrimonial farm twenty years ago, was exploded to-day by the late woman's life story as related by intimate friends.

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED IN BIG JAPAN STORM

Most Violent Typhoon in Forty Years Sweeps Westward Over Korea

Many Houses Wrecked; Shipping Losses Are Reported Heavy

Tokio, July 18.—The worst typhoon in forty years in that region ravaged the Loochoo and Kyushu Islands to-day and swept on into Southern Korea with unabated force.

A Beigo dispatch from Fusan said a terrific wind and rain storm had struck that port at noon, smashing houses and causing a panic, and then swirled on northward.

Estimates of dead and injured in the path of the typhoon were mere guesses, due to crippled communications and confusion; but authorities viewing the fragmentary reports available expressed belief the total casualties in the Loochoo Islands, Kyushu, Korea, and elsewhere, would run into the hundreds and the total damage would amount to millions of yen. Shipping especially suffered.

Tokio, July 18.—The most severe typhoon in many years swept Kyushu Island to-day. Heavy rain and a ninety-mile an hour wind struck the region, centring in the vicinity of Nagasaki. Heavy damage both afloat and ashore was feared.

WILL BROADCAST DUNNING'S SPEECH TO-NIGHT OVER CJOR

Hon. Charles A. Dunning's speech in Vancouver this evening will be broadcast over CJOR starting at 8 o'clock. Victorians who wish to hear the author of the famous budget should tune in on a wave length of 242.8 metres. This will be Mr. Dunning's last address in the Province as he leaves for the east after the meeting.

FOURTEEN MORE BOMBAY COTTON MILLS CLOSED

Bombay, July 18.—Due to accumulation of stock and depression in trade, fourteen more cotton mills will close down August 1, throwing 40,000 workers out of jobs. The Currimbhoy group has decided to work a reduced number of looms.

Lieut. A. J. Andrews of British Capital City Regiment Leads All Marksmen in Second Stage of Bisley Contest With Score of 147; British Woman to Share in Final To-morrow.

WILL SHOOT FOR THE KING'S PRIZE

Bisley Camp, Eng., July 18.—Three marksmen from Victoria, B.C., will take part in the final for the King's Prize at the Empire meet here. They are Sergt.-Maj. W. H. Ruffell, who placed third among the Canadians with a score of 141 in the second stage to-day, and Capt. W. G. Holland and Sergt. J. F. Regan, both of whom scored 139 to-day.

LONDON MAIN LEADS
Bisley Camp, Eng., July 18.—Canada goes into the final of the history King's Prize to-morrow with a handicap of five points. That represents the margin between the winner of to-day's second stage and the leading Canadian.

With perfect scores of 30 at 300 and 500 yards, and 47 at 600 yards, Lieut. A. J. Andrews of the 17th London Regiment scored 147, leading the 360 competitors in the second stage. He won the National Rifle Association's silver medal.

WOMAN QUALIFIES
Col. A. F. Marchmont, First London Regiment, was second with 145, and four others had scores of 144. These were Miss Foster, well-known rifle woman, the first woman ever to enter the final stage for the King's Prize; Captain Anderson of India, Flying Officer Richards and Armorer Sergeant King of the Marines.

CANADIANS SCORE 142
Lieut. Desmond Burke of Ottawa, King's Rifle, won in 1924, and won Sergt.-Major G. M. Emble of Toronto, led the Canadian scores of 142. Scores in to-day's second stage count in the decision, being added to the totals at the long distance ranges of to-morrow's final. Only 100 marksmen, cream of the hundreds competing at the present great Empire meet, are eligible for the final.

Qualifying scores to-day were as high as 139, though twenty-six marksmen with 138 found twenty-two places left in the final for them.

HAWKINS IN SHOOT-OFF
Ten Canadians are expected to shoot in the final to-morrow, and win places by their scoring in to-day's second stage, and there was little doubt that the tenth, Company Sergeant-Major W. A. Hawkins of Toronto, would join them. Hawkins had to shoot off with twenty-five other marksmen for twenty-two remaining places in the "King's Hundred."

If Hawkins succeeds in getting into the final, Canada will have two former winners of this great service rifle classic in the final. Lieut. Desmond Burke of Ottawa, winner in 1924, and Hawkins, winner in 1925.

All Aboard Sinking Vessel Are Rescued

British Ss. Rangitata Takes People Off German Ss. Targis, Burning in Mid-Atlantic

a London, July 18.—The British steamship Rangitata to-day radiated to the Portsmouth wireless station she had rescued all passengers and crew of the German steamship Targis, which burned and sank at about midnight at latitude 35.54 north, longitude 50.07 west.

The position given is about 1,500 miles east of New York, in mid-Atlantic.

The Targis, a ship of 5,337 tons, left Colon en route to Hamburg from Valparaiso, Chile, July 7.

The Rangitata of 10,315 tons, left Colon en route from Wellington, New Zealand, July 10.

The Targis was a North German Lloyd ship.

The Rangitata is owned by the Federal Steam Navigation Company Limited, a British concern.

NEW ADVERTISING BY MONTREAL

Montreal, July 18.—At 7 o'clock this morning Acting-mayor Dr. Z. H. Lesage, substituting for Mayor Camille Huot, who is out of the city, pressed a button in the city hall, setting in operation an electrical impulse that was carried by heavy wires to Melbourne, Australia, to turn on a huge electrical sign bearing the word "Montreal" at the Melbourne 1930 Radio Exhibition.

What it will all cost nobody has yet endeavored to compute. Local broadcast run from $85 to $100 an hour. It is the coast-to-coast broadcasts that run into money. Approximately the price is $2,000 an hour, or about $35 a minute. Speech at such time may be silvery. Silence is gold.

The wide use to which radio has been put in the present Federal election is resulting in a demand for shorter campaigns in future. The fans early learn the lesson.

A six-week campaign is felt to be out of date.

The Elections Act requires sixty days between the issuance of the writs and the polling. There has been discussion of the possibility of Parliament revising the act before the next election.

DEER SEASON TO COMMENCE ON SEPT. 13

Bucks Only Lawful Game This Year With Island Season
Closing December 15

Willow Grouse Season Opens
October 15; Partridges in Season For Two Weeks

Deer hunting on Vancouver Island, except in the North and South Sanich and Highland districts, will commence on September 13 and finish on December 15, according to the 1930-31 game regulations issued by the Provincial Government. In the Highland, North and South Sanich districts the season will be from September 13 to October 31.

The feature of the regulations this year is that does which were made lawful for a period of two weeks last season have again been declared unlawful game. By introducing the season on does last year, it has been found there has been a better balancing up of the males and females, and it was decided to close the season on the latter again. The season on ruffed or willow grouse opens on October 15 and closes on October 31.

THE SEASONS
The seasons for the western district, which includes Vancouver Island, follow:

Mountain goat, except on Vancouver Island, September 15 to December 15. Bear, except white or kermodei, September 15 to June 30, 1931; but no bear may be trapped.

Deer, mule, white tail and coast bucks only, except on Queen Charlotte Islands, and the North and South Sanich and Highland Districts of Vancouver Island, September 13 to December 15. In the Highland, North and South Sanich districts from September 13 to October 31.

All fur-bearing animals, except sea otter, and except beaver, on Vancouver Island, December 1 to February 28. Ducks, Wilson snipe, coot and geese, October 15 to January 31; but there is no open season on wood and eider ducks.

Black brant, November 15 to February 28.

Band-tailed pigeons, September 15 to October 15; but use of live decoys is prohibited.

BLUE GROUSE SEASON
Grouse (blue only), September 13 to October 31, except in South Sanich and Denman Islands. In the Highland district September 13 to September 30. On Hornby Island September 13 to September 30.

Ruffed or willow grouse throughout Western district, October 15 to October 31.

Parmigan in Prince Rupert electoral district, September 13 to October 31.

Quail, except both white and mountain quail, on Vancouver Island, south and east of Oyster River and on Salt Spring Island, October 15 to November 15. On Denman and Saturna Islands, October 15 to October 31.

Pheasants, cocks only, on Vancouver Island and districts north of Oyster River, and on Gabriola, Texada, Sidney, Montserrat, Pender, Mayne, Galiano and Salt Spring Islands, October 15 to November 15; on the mainland except in the Squamish Valley, that area lying between Jervis and Toba Inlets, and all lands west of the former west boundary of the municipality of Point Grey, October 15 to November 30.

European partridges, on Vancouver Island, in South Sanich and Highland districts, and in the North Sanich district, and on the mainland in the electoral district of Delta South, and west of the Pacific Highway, November 1 to November 15.

It was a Fine Car But Trifle Erratic, He Says

Frank Oliver built a car of many parts, but it got him into trouble, he revealed in Esquimalt Police Court yesterday afternoon, when he faced charges of driving to the common danger and using incorrect license plates.

Fines of $25 and $10 on the two charges were imposed by Magistrate George Jay.

Oliver told the court he had put the car which he was driving through various cars. The gears he obtained were from a Ford of ancient vintage and had a habit of getting out of control. He had been unable to stop when he approached the closed dockyard gates at Esquimalt and the car hit them. As far as the license plates were concerned they had come from the body of one car he had purchased and he had not had time to get new ones, he said.

Chief of Police John Acreman said the accused' explanation was apparently correct.

No Hope
"What sort of chance is there for a young fellow beginning at the bottom to work his way up?"
"Not much. We're contractors for digging wells."

Winnipeg Mayor Thanks Saanich For Manitobans

A vote of thanks was yesterday evening passed by the Saanich Council for aid recently extended in entertaining a party of about thirty Manitobans headed by Mayor Ralph H. Webb, of Winnipeg, and the Minister of Agriculture of Manitoba.

The resolution was passed after reception of a letter to Reeve Crouch from Mayor Webb, wherein he expressed hearty appreciation of the splendid time they gave our party during their recent visit to beautiful Victoria.

Mayor Webb also wrote that all the visitors had agreed that Vancouver Island was without question the most wonderful and beautiful spot in Canada, and all would be delighted to return and to tell everyone where to go to see real beauty.

When men resorted to fraud and libel against some of the best men in Canada in order to gain a party advantage, the minister asserted, "they are going a long way to fool the workers and the people of Canada as a whole."

Twenty-Five Years Ago To-Day

The run of salmon in the Straits continues to increase, as shown by the lifts at the traps. As yet the main run does not seem to have begun.

Weather Forecast—Victoria and Vicinity—Northerly winds, fine and warm to-day and Wednesday.

Last night's meeting of the city council was short and businesslike, the session only lasting half an hour. Only routine business was transacted.

The steamer Queen City arrived this morning from West Coast ports, and after landing her passengers went on to Ladysmith with seventy tons of ore from one of the island mines.

Before much more than a week has elapsed the park and recreation grounds being prepared by the B.C. Electric Railway Company at the terminus on their line at the Gorge will be completed.

TARIFF GAINS

As was to be expected in a city where large industries are located, the Premier Minister devoted the greater part of his address to the budget. Taking the iron and steel industry as an example, he told the audience the general prosperity of Canada must be the basis for prosperity in any particular enterprise. The sale of steel rails, of structural steel and other forms of steel was contingent upon Canada's prosperity, and Canada's prosperity was contingent on the Dominion obtaining and retaining the British market.

Mr. Bennett, Conservative leader, asserted Mr. King was avoiding the great issue of the campaign. This was the budget, with its provisions for widening the British preference.

CANADA SPEAKS

It was after a long train journey, all the way from Kenora, Ont., where he had spoken Wednesday evening, that Premier King arrived at the hall here late yesterday evening for the meeting. The Liberal candidate in this constituency, West Algoma, A. E. Whytall, had already spoken before the Premier Minister arrived.

STEEL INDUSTRY

Premier King recalled having visited Sault Ste. Marie some twenty-one years ago, when he had spoken on the importance of the iron and steel industry to Canada. Little has he thought that he would again stand on a platform in the same city and address a great multitude on the iron and steel industry.

Mr. King outlined the nature and the purpose of the Dunning budget. It was the all-important thing of the last session, he said. It had greater significance than an ordinary budget because it dealt with important world conditions which had arisen.

"Our opponents are telling you a great deal about the home market," said Mr. King. "But if we had to depend on the home market to absorb our products we would be buried under them."

The tariff board had made suggestions of many things Canada could purchase from Great Britain instead of from the United States, without injury to the consumers.

Mr. King also expected the budget would meet with the support of the Conservatives in the House of Commons. Mr. King said it was a budget which increased the British preference. It was a budget which was helpful to the iron and steel industry. It was a good budget, and there was no reason why a government should be opposed to everything it brought forward. But instead it had met with ridicule and opposition from the Conservatives.

GOODWILL NEEDED

The heart of Great Britain, of Scotland and of Ireland had responded to the hand which Canada stretched forth in the widening of the British preference, said Mr. King. "After all," he asked, "is it not a great thing to foster goodwill in all parts of the Empire?"

The budget gave to the people of Canada an opportunity to foster this goodwill, and at the same time, to build up the Dominion as well as the Empire.

UNFOUNDED STATEMENTS

"For years past the Conservative party has tried to spread the idea that the Liberal government was a party of reaction," said Premier King. "Especially with respect to me, they have gone up and down the country preaching this doctrine, which they know to be a party of reaction."

The introduction into parliament by a Liberal government of a budget which was a great and determined effort to develop trade with Great Britain, therefore, had put the Conservatives in a position "where they don't know where to get off at."

"At first," declared Mr. King, "they said we had stolen their clothes. This had given place to a policy of ridicule and opposition to the government's fiscal proposals."

The Conservative party, Mr. King said, had not expected the government would go to the country on the budget. And when the government had done so, Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, had been left at a loss. The Conservatives had opposed the budget, he said, but it was a budget which met with support in Canada. Was it any wonder that leading Conservatives in the Dominion were writing to the paper and saying they would support the Liberals on this great issue?

The widening of the British preference was already beginning to find its reflection in Great Britain, Mr. King said. Wheat had been moving more easily within the last few months.

Dealing with the record of the government, the Prime Minister said there had not been a single charge of graft or corruption made against the government during the entire campaign.

FERREYON SCORED

Winnipeg, July 18.—"Backyard methods of doing business" were criticized by Premier G. Howard Ferguson of Ontario by Hon. Peter Heenan, Federal Minister of Labor, in a speech here yesterday evening.

Mr. Heenan charged libellous statements had been circulated through a paper called The Canadian Labor News in the hope of creating the impression it was the voice of Labor which applied the minister's statement.

The minister stated the paper "claims to be endorsed by the American Federation of Labor, the Trades Congress of Canada and the Allied Trades Association, and even has names of officers of the Ottawa council on its editorial page." Officials of those organizations and the men whose names were mentioned on the editorial page, he said, repudiated knowledge of what had been done.

When men resorted to fraud and libel against some of the best men in Canada in order to gain a party advantage, the minister asserted, "they are going a long way to fool the workers and the people of Canada as a whole."

DUNNING IS TO BE HEARD IN VANCOUVER

The Minister of Finance declared the people of Canada on July 28 would not only decide on a great national policy, but they would at the same time have an opportunity to set the lead for a tremendous British Empire policy. The object of the Liberal budget was to bring the units of the empire closer together in a spirit of co-operation.

No single province in Canada had now a major grievance against Canada as a whole, declared Mr. Dunning.

"The Maritime Provinces have been given their natural resources and British Columbia has received the Railway Belt and the Peace River Block."

The settlement of these major problems, said Mr. Dunning, was a great tribute to the work of a master conciliator, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, who had carried on the negotiations in a spirit of co-operation and conciliation.

DEBT REDUCED

Touching on the national debt of Canada, Mr. Dunning said it now stood at $2,194,000,000. For years, the late Minister of Finance, Hon. James A. Robb, had driven every year to reduce the national debt and at the same time lessen taxation. In the last five years $286,000,000 had been cut from the national debt.

Also during the last seven years the King Government had succeeded in carrying on great public undertakings. The financial record of Canada was unequalled by any other country which had been in the Great War from its commencement, he said.

The Premier of Canada had proved himself an outstanding conciliator if ever there was one, said Mr. Dunning. He had brought about a united Canada by settling sectional problems, the settlement of which permitted Canada to move forward as a unit.

As far as immigration was concerned, the Liberal Government believed Canada's immigration should be adjusted from time to time in order to suit the requirements and opportunities, Mr. Dunning stated.

"In the last five years there has been railway mileage constructed in Canada equal to that of the United States, and if this branch mileage was placed end to end," the speaker said.

UNEMPLOYMENT QUESTION

The Conservatives, said Mr. Dunning, said they would call a special session of Parliament and pass an act to settle the question of unemployment. They did not say what they would put in the act. If it was as simple as that, would not the British Labor Government, conceded to be the most sympathetic toward such a problem, have settled unemployment in the Old Country by passing a similar act? Instead, the British Government was looking forward to the Imperial Conference in London this fall to discuss the problem.

It was an insult to the intelligence of Canadian people to state any act of Parliament could deal with a problem of this sort, Mr. Dunning said at a meeting in Winnipeg he said that if the Conservatives were elected there would not be a single unemployed man in Canada by Christmas. This was utter nonsense, the Finance Minister declared. Employment could only be improved by the application of sound principles to trade relations with other countries.

U.S. EXPORTS DECREASE

The Conservatives pointed out the example of the United States as a self-contained nation, said Mr. Dunning, but the policy of that country had succeeded in hardening the nations of the world against it. During the first half of this year the exports of the United States had dropped $100,000,000. If the Conservative policy meant Canada was to be regarded by the world in the same spirit as the United States, Mr. Dunning said he did not want that policy.

Canada should not slavishly follow the policy of any other country, although, the speaker said, he believed this country could still learn much from the British Isles.

MUST EXPORT WHEAT

In western Canada, enough wheat was produced to feed 100,000,000 people and no amount of Tory propaganda could make the people believe that that amount of wheat. It had to be sold abroad and this condition applied to many other commodities produced in Canada.

The British preferential tariff was fashioned to foster trade between Canada and Great Britain, he said. If it was not wide enough, the Minister of Finance favored making it still wider so Great Britain could sell as freely to Canada as Canada did to the Old Country.

Countervailing duties were an experiment, but one that was working out satisfactorily, he said. Much fun had been made of cast-iron pipe by the Conservatives, but in this case the

MRS. M'LEAN SAYS BENEFITS ARE MARVELOUS

Every Trace of Indigestion Disappeared and Whole System Strengthened By New Sargon

Time and time again men and women, rejoicing in new-found health and strength, have come forward to express their unbounded gratitude towards Sargon and to say that it was the first medicine to bring them relief after years of suffering and disappointment.

Soundly based on some of the very latest findings of medical science, Sargon is today according to the statements of those who have actually put it to the test, bringing new health, strength and energy to thousands by methods undreamed of a few short years ago.

How this modern compound succeeds is strikingly illustrated in the case of Mrs. Jean McLean, Apt. No. 10, The Linden Apt., Bain Avenue, Toronto, who recently said:

"No one can enjoy life fully without health and I can sincerely say, that since taking Sargon I'm enjoying both life and health to the fullest."

"I suffered for years from gastric indigestion, sour stomach and the effects of a faulty liver that kept me so badly constipated my whole system became toxic and my color often had a medicine, not to mention pounds of soda, without any satisfactory results and got to where I hardly had any appetite at all. Two operations I had three years ago were a further drain upon my strength and vitality; I became so nervous I seldom slept well and felt weak and exhausted all the time."

Before I'd finished the first bottle of Sargon, every trace of indigestion and stomach trouble had disappeared, which seemed perfectly marvelous to me! I don't know when I've had such a wonderful appetite and my nerves are so much stronger I sleep fine all night. My friends have all commented on the great improvement in my health and strength and the remarkable change in my complexion, which would credit to a much younger person than I am."

The Sargon Soft Mass Pills that go with the tonic were exactly what I needed to get my liver active again and rid me of constipation. They didn't cause the slightest distress and no one could ask for a more perfect combination treatment."

Sargon may be obtained in Victoria and Vancouver from all Owl Drug Stores, and in New Westminster from the Bess Drug Company. (Advt.)

French Government had reduced its heavy duty against Canadian cast-iron pipe by one-third as a result of the countervailing duty.

British statesmen, the British press, the British West Indies and Bermuda were unanimous in their approval of the budget, he said. In fact, every part of the Empire had endorsed it in glowing terms. Only the Tory Party in Canada was dissatisfied with it.

DONAGHY SPEAKS
Declaring the Dunning budget was the most celebrated budget in Canada's history, Hon. Dugald Donaghy said that not since the days of Sir John A. Macdonald had there been such an important fiscal policy laid before the people of Canada.

Conservatives had tried to push unemployment to the front, overlooking features of the Liberal policy, he said. Employment was founded on opportunity to produce and the latter was only limited by economic laws governing expansion of markets. The expansion of trade was the great principle of the Dunning budget.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS
A "shut-door" policy to exclude Orientals from British Columbia and Canada for five years was advocated by T. Reid, Liberal candidate. A further five years' exclusion was proposed if it should prove necessary.

In connection with the sockeye salmon treaty, Mr. Reid said the year's delay brought about by the Conservative opposition had permitted the United States to study the treaty more closely, and they were now disinclined to sign it. If it failed to pass, then this tragedy could be laid at the door of the British Columbia Conservatives.

David Whitehead acted as chairman of the meeting.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonard, after years of study discovered a real internal Pile remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. He prescribed it for 1,000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 990 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

Dr. Leonard's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and McParlane and Vancouver Drug Stores invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantee to refund the purchase price if it does not and all Pile misery. (Advt.)

Australasia-China and Other
Cable Companies Announce
Big Cut

Shanghai, July 18.—The Danish
Great Northern Telegraph Company and the British Eastern Extension, Australasia-China Telegraph Company, to-day announced a thirty-three per cent reduction in press rates, effective
August 1.
The reduction will reduce the Shanghai-London rate from one gold franc, twenty-five centimes (about twenty-five cents) to eighty-three centimes (about 16-3 cents) per word.
Commercial Pacific Cables, operating transpacific lines, indicated a reduction in the Shanghai-to-San Francisco full press rate from 1.45 francs to 1.25 francs (about 25 cents) per word. That company would be made soon. The company also indicated the Shanghai-to-New York rate would be cut from 1.75 francs gold to 1.45 francs and that its deferred press rates across the Pacific would be reduced in greater proportions.

ASK DOMINIONS FOR VIEWS ON EUROPE UNION

British Government Leaders
Draw France's Attention to Need For Study of Plan

Paris, July 17.—Great Britain's response to Foreign Minister Briand's memorandum on a proposed federation of European states was received by the Foreign Office to-day. It accepts the principle of closer collaboration of European states, but takes issue with the methods suggested.
Several objections to the French scheme were advanced in the British reply. The Communication stated the British Government intended its preliminary character as M. Briand's programme demanded careful and prolonged consideration and the British Government felt it to be its duty "to undertake that consideration in consultation with the Dominions."

RIVALRY FORESEEN
The British reply said the feeling that the creation of any new political institutions at the present time might
"create confusion and engender rivalry," which might diminish the authority of the League of Nations, caused the present reply to be designated as "preliminary and provisional."
The fear also was expressed that such a union as France proposed might accentuate rivalry and hostility between the continents and thus any measure taken must be elaborated so as to cause
no uneasiness abroad.

NORWAY'S ATTITUDE
The Norwegian reply also was received to-day. It offered full co-operation in achieving European Union, but expressed entire agreement with the principle of a European union, but insists such a union should exist within the sphere of the League of Nations.
The Belgian note recognizes the usefulness of a European conference, but expresses belief that combined action in the economic sphere is more important than political action.

PLAN SUPPORTED
Paris, July 17.—Czechoslovakia's answer to Foreign Minister Briand's invitation to join in a European Federation of Nations, delivered last night here shows the newly created country to be one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the scheme.

HUNDSON ON WORKS BODY OF BRITAIN

London, July 18.—Lord Hundson will be one of the Public Works Commissioners during the coming year despite protests of the left-wing Laborites. Premier MacDonald announced after a meeting of the Labor Party
Thursday that the Public Works Loan
Bill, which involves Lord Hundson's appointment, among others, would not be altered.

The peer, formerly Herbert Cokayne Gibbs, is alleged to have said during the coal strike of 1926 that "the miners should be started back to work" since that utterance he has been the target of many a Labor barb.
Lord Hundson was given his peerage in 1923 by the Baldwin Conservative Government. His appointment as one of the commissioners of public works this year is only in line with the expressed determination of the Macdonald Government to include men who are not Labor partisans in their allotment of public positions, when these men are generally deemed the best for the posts to be filled.

SILVER CLAIM IS STAKED ON COBALT STREET

Cobalt, Ont., July 18.—Permission

grade silver ore in that section, has been granted the Mining Corporation

WILL CONTINUE FEE

London, July 18.—It will prove impossible for the present to abolish or reduce the existing visa fees between the United States and Great Britain,
Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson said in reply to a question in the House of Commons yesterday. The decision was reached, he explained, "in view of the financial sacrifices involved."

STEVENS AND EMPIRE TRADE

IN A SPEECH AT MANITOU ON TUESDAY Hon. H. H. Stevens said that in spite of the fact that Premier King voted at the Imperial Conference of 1926 for a resolution urging the development of empire trade, he did nothing about it, in so far as his government was concerned, until the May Day budget; while he waited, the Vancouver Centre candidate charged, trade between Britain and Canada dropped forty per cent.

When Mr. Stevens made this statement he must have known that he was not giving a fair account of Canada's business with the United Kingdom. Let us consider the total trade between these two parts of the empire for the last three fiscal years:

	Imports	Exports
1928	$185,895,857	$410,091,392
1929	194,041,381	431,660,941
1930	189,178,156	289,174,565

It will be observed from the above statistics that the total trade for 1928 amounted to $596,587,249, for 1929, $625,702,332, while for the year ending with last March the figure had dropped to $472,352,711. It was the most recent total, of course, upon which Mr. Stevens made his play of words. But the explanation of the drop in the value of exports for that fiscal year is a simple one. It is represented solely by the item of agricultural and vegetable products. The value of our sales to the United Kingdom under this heading in the fiscal year ending with March, 1929, amounted to $325,105,581—a normal year of grain shipments. In the fiscal year ending with last March the total of these exports to the United Kingdom did not exceed $186,521,591, or a decrease of no less than $138,583,990.

Mr. Stevens might have finished this account of declining trade with Great Britain by telling his audience at Manitou that the King government was responsible for last year's small crop. It would have been just as reasonable as his implication that the decline in our exports to Great Britain for the last fiscal year had been brought about by the policies which the present administration is pursuing. Incidentally, if last year had been a normal one as far as our sales of agricultural and vegetable products are concerned, the value of our trade with the United Kingdom would have been more than $600,000,000, or more than in 1928, and approximately $200,000,000 more than it was for the fiscal year ending with March, 1922, the last trading year of the Meighen government.

And Mr. Stevens also is wrong when he says Mr. King did nothing to foster trade with Great Britain between the Imperial Conference in 1926 and May of this year. At the session of 1926 the duty on a number of commodities we import from Great Britain was reduced, notably certain machinery used in mining, one of this Dominion's great primary industries. Prior to that, almost every budget has been marked by increases in the British preference, in the face of Tory hostility.

S.P.C.A. TAG DAY

THE WORK-THAT LOCAL BRANCH OF the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals does so effectively in this community is not spectacular, but it is one that should appeal to the humanitarian instincts of all of us. Unostentatious though its labors may be, however, it finds itself obliged at intervals to call upon a generous public for funds, and willing workers will be found at the street corners to-morrow with collecting boxes and tags. The Times bespeaks for them a liberal response.

MISSING!

ONE SPECTACULAR OMISSION FROM the present election pyrotechnics must have been noted in many quarters. This is the flag-waving stunt to which our Conservative friends have resorted during the last fifty years, and which, for the time being, has now been relegated to the limbo of things forgotten. Liberals used to be charged with all kinds of sedition; they were called empire-wreckers, separatists, annexationists and so forth, and it was a very rare Conservative meeting which did not end with "Rule Britannia."

Not so this time. The Dunning budget with its empire-unifying preference provision has driven this particular weapon from Mr. Bennett's arsenal. How could he wave the Union Jack and at the same time attack a fiscal policy which has been welcomed in Britain as a long step in the promotion of trade between Canada and the Old Country? How could he sing "Rule Britannia" and immediately afterwards declare that he would not give British producers any concessions in the Canadian market unless the British government put a tax on the food of the British people? How could he charge the Liberals with lukewarmness to the empire and in the next breath attack the trade treaties with Australia, New Zealand and the West Indies? Mr. Bennett's symbol no longer is the flag. It is a club to be used on the other dominions of the Commonwealth.

MR. DREISER'S PESSIMISM

THEODORE DREISER, HAVING COMPLETED an extensive tour of the United States, finds that his famous pessimism is more firmly entrenched than ever. He tells an interviewer that constitutional government has abdicated, that Americans can no longer express themselves as individuals, that the average citizen has lost his power to think and that literature is practically dead.

"Conditions here are in many ways similar to those in Russia before the revolution," he asserts, "I am more convinced than ever that the country is headed for great social changes that will frustrate the life of the ordinary individual unless they can be checked by a really important stand on the part of the intellectuals."

Mr. Dreiser never has been one to look on the bright side of things. His novel breathes a bitter doubt—or, rather, a firm conviction that humanity is fighting a hopeless fight against the powers of darkness. To have him bring back anything but a pessimistic report on the state of his country would be a tremendous surprise.

Nevertheless, his attitude emphasizes a curious thing: the prevalence, among cultured and thoughtful minds, of a great discouragement and disappointment over our current civilization.

Why should this be? In a great many ways we have made very genuine progress in the last two or three decades. Living conditions are easier for millions of human beings. An enormous amount of soul-killing drudgery has been outlawed forever. Scientists have pushed the boundaries of human knowledge back almost to infinity. In the creative arts the land is more active than ever before. Why should so many thinkers be downcast?

The answer, it may be, lies in our increasing tendency to rely on machinery and science. We have, in this way, set ourselves free from some old evils, but there is not, so far, any clear indication where we are going. Our machines have developed faster than we have. If we are going to be able to control them intelligently, then we can enter into an era in history splendid beyond belief; but if we are not, an appalling sort of disaster is bound to befall us.

It will not help simply to shout the pessimists down. We need to study the new dispensation more closely than we have ever studied anything; to find out just what its possibilities are, and to set ourselves the task of realizing them. If we do this we can confound the critics; if not, their gloomy predictions will be justified.

AN EXCHANGE OF VISITORS

UNITED STATES MOTORISTS ARE EXPECTED to spend around $300,000,000 in Canada this summer. Our Dominion has unrivaled attractions as a vacation land. Citizens of the United States are discovering the fact in increasing numbers every year.

However, Canadians do a good deal of touring, too, and a lot of them cross the border to do it. In 1929, according to Dominion government figures, Canadian tourists spent more than $111,000,000 in the United States, and more than 619,000 Canadian automobiles went south over the boundary. The figures probably will be higher this year.

Here is reciprocity of the best kind. The famous unfortified frontier is in no danger as long as the two nations exchange friendly visits on such a scale.

LOOKING FOR COMFORT

IT RATHER LOOKS AS IF THE OTTAWA Journal is whistling to keep up its courage when it predicts Conservative gains in Quebec on the strength of what it calls the traditional heavy popular vote which the Conservative party rolls up at each general election.

True, the Conservatives polled 286,000 votes in Quebec at the 1926 contest, but it is equally true that the Liberals in those Quebec constituencies polled no fewer than 507,000 votes. After all, for what the comparison is worth, here is a surplus of Liberal ballots of 221,000—by no means an inconsiderable one. It is surprising The Journal does not indulge in a repetition of the old ditty that there is something wrong somewhere when sixty Liberals and only four Conservatives are elected to Parliament on a distribution of votes such as occurred in 1926 and on previous occasions.

All this is explained, of course, by the difference in voting strength between the urban and rural constituencies. Under our electoral system it has frequently happened that the party in office with a comfortable majority was elected with only a small margin of the popular vote in its favor.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

CORRUPT POLITICIANS

The Sydney Bulletin

Our public life has been given over to the place-hunter who regards the vote as merely something which can help him to power, with victory most certain for the man who can best manipulate it; and our present financial embarrassment is almost wholly due to the fact that manipulation and attempted manipulation has been done mainly with public funds.

BUILDING SHORTAGE IN THE FREE STATE

The Dublin Weekly Times

Building is a business, like any other business, and the housing problem never will be settled in the Free State or anywhere else, until the incentive to build has been restored. In other words, the man who builds a house must be assured of a reasonable return from his invested capital.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

The Manitoba Free Press

A proposal is being made in Great Britain that the importation of flour be stopped and that the needs of the country be supplied by the British millers, using first, British wheat, then wheat from the Dominions, then foreign wheat. The proposal may never be adopted but it is an interesting one in view of the present political discussion in Canada.

There are some people who think that Canada should exclude British woollens, machinery and many other things that are made in Canada so as to keep the entire market for Canadian industries. The same people think that raw materials should not be exported but only the finished products.

Wheat is one of the principal products of Canada, and the manufacture of flour is a natural industry for this country and one that has seen a great growth through the development of the export market.

But the proposal now heard in Britain would put an end to the export of flour to that important market. The Canadians have referred to could not object to that, for it is exactly what they want to do in regard to many British products sold in this country. It is a game that could be worked both ways and it was used against Canadian export products there are many producers in this country who would soon be mourning the result.

To those who wish to see an increase of trade within the British Commonwealth, the excluding of British woollens from Canada and of Canadian flour from Britain will not seem to be the ideal way to begin.

Extreme policies will always make trouble. They may be profitable to special interests but they sacrifice the interests of the country as a whole.

Loose Ends

The floating on our lake is threatened by civilization—Sir Henry Thornton rumbles by—And Chicago gives a nice definition.

By H. B. W.

FOR SOME years now it has been my quaint custom, when overpowered by the unmitigated progress of the world, to take a quiet jump in the lake. There is nothing so refreshing as coming out of the world and into a long, deep, cool jump in the lake. And I don't mean one of your fancy jacks, but a real one, such as they picture in the bathing suit advertisements—I mean a long, deep, cool jump which plunges you down ten feet or more and you come up gradually, looking through the mass of glittering bubbles and foam above you. And then I like to lie out flat on my back, arms outstretched, perfectly still, and watch the sky with the tops of the towering fir trees against it. You are utterly alone as you float in the lake. The whole world has disappeared from view and, if you have a poetic turn of mind and are inclined to be sentimental, you can imagine for once that you are part of a scheme of things, whatever that may be. You have melted completely into the picture of the lake. The shore and you belong to it as much as the trees and the water itself. Lying thus you don't care if the world of business and civilization keeps until to-morrow or not, and rather hope it won't.

I HAVE A reason, of course, for revealing this intimate recipe for happiness. I am doing so because the march of progress threatens to ruin it altogether. Up to this year you could lie floating out on our lake as long as you liked. No one bothered about you and you could stay there all night and not be disturbed by anyone interrupting you. The old-timers at our lake are too polite to interfere with you, even if you were drowning. This season, however, civilization came to our lake. Some of the civilized newcomers brought with them devilish speed boats which race across the water at thirty-five miles an hour, spending up white spray, and assaulting the echoes of the hills with the roar of their engines. If one of them ran over you while you were floating and thinking powerful thoughts, you would probably continue to float until someone dragged you in and buried you. But that is not the worst. A still more infernal manifestation of the age has lately arrived—a wide-winged airplane which roars back and forth above our lake half a dozen times a day, to come swooping down on the water like a kingfisher after a fish. The speed boats and the airplanes have ruined the floating on our lake. Who wants to float with the roar of engines in his ears and the smell of gasoline in his nostrils? Who can imagine that he is on the bosom of Nature, alone with the universe, when a seaplane is drowning overhead?

SO SOME DAY, when I can afford it, I am going to move to some other lake hundreds of miles from the nearest speed boat and airplane, and there I am going to float once more, all alone. But to reach such a lonely spot, where there are no roads, I shall have to get an airplane of my own and permit me to say, I shall not be sorry that I may enjoy them unpolluted. I must use the worst devices of this machine age in order to escape them. There is no final escape from this thing, and the fine old art of floating may disappear altogether if something isn't done about it.

SIR HENRY THORNTON was in town this week, and if you want to understand the meaning of that much-abused word, personality, you should know that man. Much nonsense has been written in our time about personal magnetism and all that kind of thing, but when you shake hands with Sir Henry you cannot help realizing that you are within the orbit of some extraordinary force. It is not his face, or his build, or his features, ruddy or complexioned, and as homely as you or I. It is not his tremendous height and mountainous size. It is not even his great friendly grin and Palestinian laugh. There is something else, a sense of enormous, untouchable reserves of strength, of which you are instantly aware, and there is an air of the most utter serenity and complete happiness about the man. Either he has nothing whatever in his job to worry about, or more likely, he has found that there is nothing in any job worth a good man's worry. And he has such an evident enthusiasm for life that you wonder whether he hasn't overlooked some parts of it, or has discovered something about it that is hidden from ordinary men. Anyway, the spectacle of this huge man trundling good-naturedly through the world as if there were no mystery in the entire universe, and no doubt where he is going, is very cheering on a summer's day. It makes you feel very small and weak and unimportant and yet backs you up amazingly.

SOME FACTS which any person with pretensions to culture should know were given to the world recently in a case tried by the courts of Chicago. "Female of the genus sort prevail." To which the gentleman who owned a burlesque show and another gentleman who owned a burlesque show, the gentleman who owned the revue was trying to high-tail the gentleman who owned the burlesque show. He said that a burlesque show was a "shooting gallery" where "female of the genus sort prevail." To which the gentleman who owned the burlesque show made his classic retort, which, in these days of movie revues and musical shows, I feel should be handed on: "There is but one difference between the type of musical entertainment known as the 'revue' or 'musical comedy,' and that type known as 'burlesque.' Where the female performers are younger and sometimes more beautiful, and at the same time more bold, more daring and more risqué, the show is a revue or musical comedy. When these same females get older, less beautiful, less daring, less risqué, and begin to realize that a position, at least, of their bodies must be covered with clothing to conceal the marks of age, then the show is burlesque." And now you know.

UNION PARLEY WILL DISCUSS RELIEF GRANTS

Saanich Will Prepare Unemployment Resolution For Kelowna Convention

Saanich will bring the question of unemployment relief before the Union of B.C. Municipalities Convention at Kelowna in September. At the instance of Reeve Crouch a resolution was yesterday evening ordered prepared, in terms avoiding political implications, for adoption at the next session of the council, prior to being forwarded to the union for inclusion in the convention agenda.

The Reeve explained that intimation had been given Vancouver of possibility of provincial funds being allotted the city for relief purposes. He considered that if such a grant were made, similar aid should be accorded other cities and municipalities experiencing pressure from unemployed for relief. He believed Nanaimo, Victoria, New Westminster, Burnaby and Saanich to be entitled to pro-rata consideration equal to any which might be accorded Vancouver by the government.

When councillors urged caution in preparation of the text of the Saanich resolution the Reeve stressed the view that nothing more than a general statement, designed to ensure discussion of unemployment relief on the floor of the convention, should be forwarded to the union.

Glen Lake

Miss Alice Madders, Glen Lake Road, has left for a trip to Winnipeg, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Fea recently had as guests Miss Doris Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Beaven, Miss Betty Beaven, Miss Ormand, Mrs. Moore and Cliff Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Trace and family are residing at "Glen Dale Cabin."

Miss Molly Shand, director of the Victoria Order of Nurses at Walkerville, Ont., was a recent guest of Mrs. M. A. Morrow.

Mrs. W. H. F. Richards is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Trace.

R. M. BROPHY VISITING COAST

Sales Manager of Canadian Marconi Company, Montreal, Outlines Policy

R. M. BROPHY

In an interview yesterday, Mr. R. M. Brophy, sales manager of the Canadian Marconi Company, outlined the purpose of his extended trip across Canada. Mr. Brophy left Montreal on June 21, and is en route across the Dominion, calling on Marconi distributors and investigating local radio trade conditions.

"The entire Marconi organization," Mr. Brophy stated, "is convinced that the New Marconi Radio this year will far exceed all past sales records for Marconi products. This conviction is based upon many new outstanding features in the organization and merchandising plans of the company, which accounts for the enthusiasm of the Marconi distributors I have called on thus far. The most outstanding of these features is undoubtedly the new Marconi plant at Mount Royal, about twenty minutes' drive from Montreal. This factory has just been completed, and is the most modern radio plant in Canada, equipped with the very latest scientific apparatus for manufacturing the New Marconi Radio, and wireless devices and apparatus for commercial purposes. In fact, the Canadian Marconi Company is the only Canadian radio company having engineering, research, testing and production departments all under one roof. Production of the New Marconi Radio is already in full swing, and we are producing 300 sets a day—one set every thirty minutes." Mr. Brophy predicts that the new plant, manned with Canadian workers, will reduce dealer servicing costs to a minimum.

Mr. Brophy stated further, "The new Marconi 1930 Radio exemplifies the result of our recent radio market investigation. To determine radio buying motives we directly questioned 547 radio retailers across Canada. Results showed that, of all radio buying motives, tone, appearance and selectivity are the strongest.

"Two unique tests have already greatly stimulated public interest in the New Marconi Radio. The first test took place last April in the viceregal suite of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Montreal, when we asked a picked jury of famous Canadian interior decorators to vote on the new Marconi cabinets as to correctness of design. The second test was equally as important. We invited some of Canada's most celebrated musicians to judge the tone qualities of the New Marconi. Both tests resulted in a unanimous vote of the Royal York Hotel, Toronto. In both cases the New Marconi Radio was judged supreme."

Royal Oak

Mrs. A. Frayne and daughters, Doris and Kathleen, and Miss Lillie Neilling of Lethbridge, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coffey, East Road, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Newton and son Jack, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shefford, Lindsay Road, have returned to their home in Vancouver.

Miss K. Butts of the Municipal Hall staff is spending a vacation in Vancouver.

Mrs. J. Scott, Royal Oak, has her sister, Miss M. Tai of Kamloops as her guest.

Mrs. J. W. Burnett with Vera and Doreen of Wilkinson Road, left on Thursday to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. M. Craig at Agassiz.

The Misses Winifred, Evelyn and Beryl Whitehead, are visiting Unalaska points for a vacation.

Miss Bertha Archer and Miss Flossie Curson and Jack Curson left on Tuesday for Mexico after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Curson, Lindsay Road, for a few days.

TREE SITTING FLOURISHES

Camden, N.J., July 18.—The epidemic of "tree sitting," which has swept over the country, has taken a firm hold in Camden and vicinity. Thirteen boys are perched on limbs high above the ground and others are preparing to go aloft each day.

PRINCETON CREW WINS

Favorites in the international collegiate competition for the Thames Challenge Cup are the 150-pounders from Princeton, who are pictured here during a practice heat in England. In a hard-fought race with the Twickenham eight, the Princeton crew won by a length and seemed slated to meet in the final race.

Solloway-Mills Appeal Is to Be Heard in Alberta

Calgary, July 18.—Grounds for the appeal of I. W. C. Solloway and James Harvey Mills, chief officials of Solloway, Mills & Company Limited, who were sentenced to jail terms and heavily fined in the Supreme Court of Alberta following conviction on conspiracy charges, were filed at the Courthouse here yesterday by defence counsel. The appeal will be heard in the appellate division of the Supreme Court, probably in September.

Allegations of the defence are that the decision of the court was wrongfully reached and that falling questioning of the court's judgment, a new trial should be ordered, and that the trial should be with a jury.

Santa Maria, Cal., July 18.—Wing-commander Charles Kingsford-Smith, pilot of the monoplane Southern Cross, yesterday denied a statement by Captain J. P. Saul that he would attempt a west-to-east crossing of the Atlantic aboard a new monoplane.

URGES MOVE FOR NATIONALIZING OF PRODUCTION

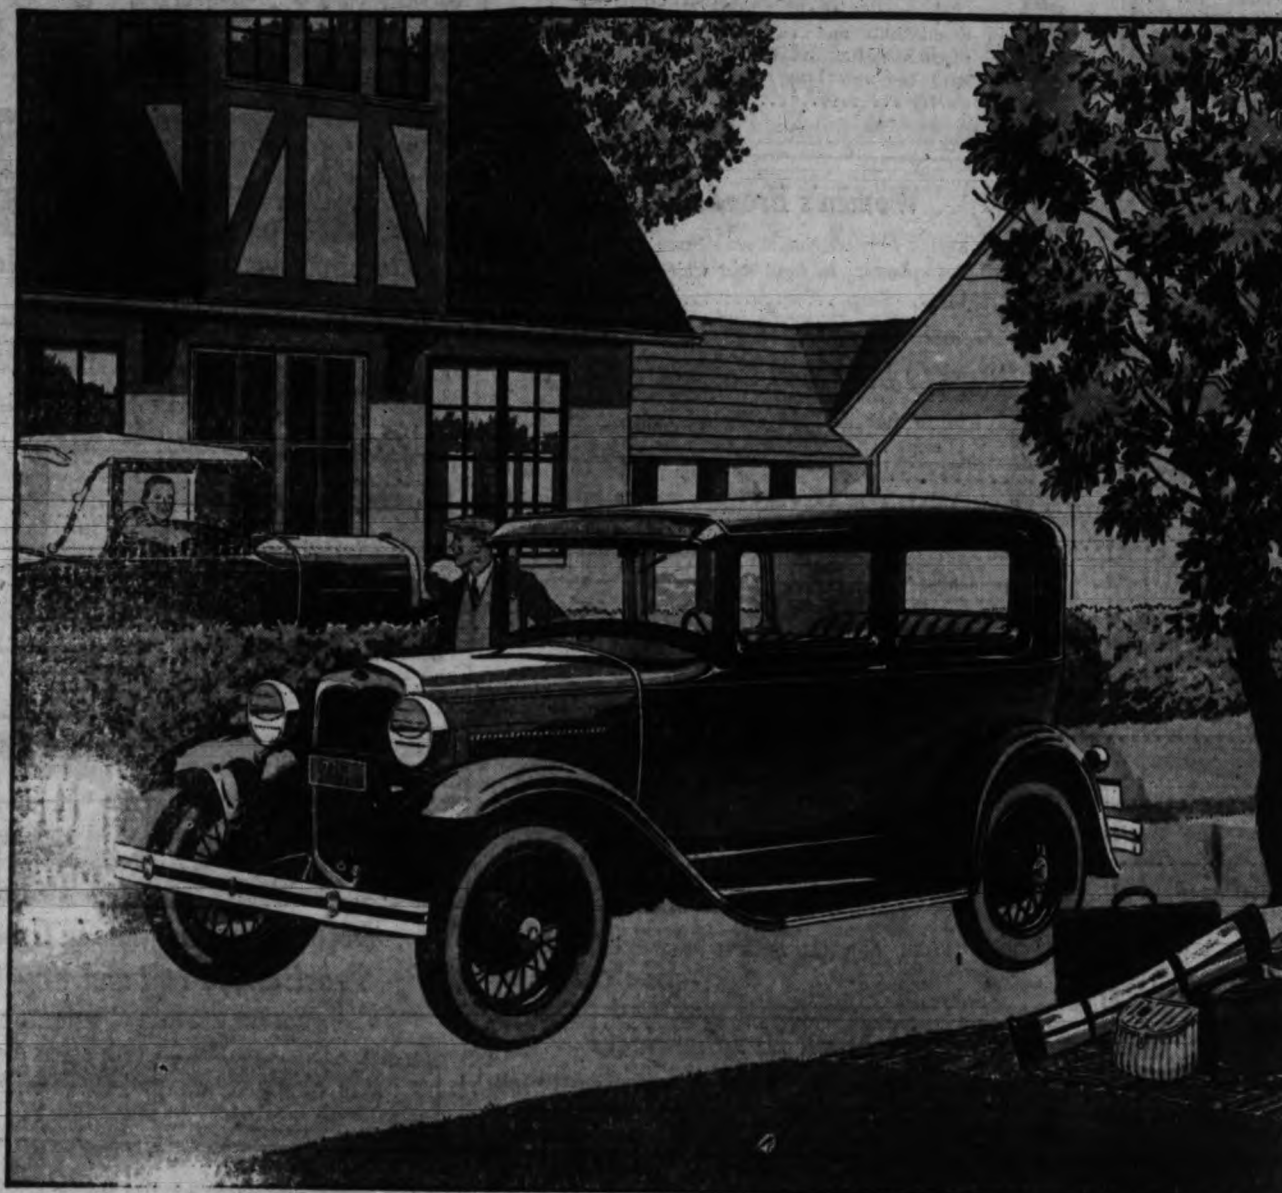

Paris, July 18.—An agreement between nations, particularly between France and the United States, to rationalize production, was urged yesterday by Paul Reynaud, French Minister of Finance, as the solution for present world economic difficulties.

M. Reynaud, in an address before the American Club, maintained the present crisis was due to overproduction.

MacNider, Soon To Go to Ottawa

Washington, July 18.—The State Department says Col. Harford MacNider, newly-appointed United States Minister to Canada, will probably assume his official duties at Ottawa during the last week of August or the first week of September.

Col. MacNider succeeds Hon. William Phillips.

THE NEW FORD TUDOR SEDAN

The Ford Leads in Sales Because It Leads in Value

EVERYWHERE you go you see an increasing number of Ford cars. In the city—in the country—you hear enthusiastic praise of its beauty, safety, speed and comfort and its reliability and economy. Over and over again you note this same significant comment—"I'm glad I bought a Ford."

The reason can be expressed in ten short words. The Ford leads in sales because it leads in value. Today it is outselling every other automobile in Canada by a large and constantly increasing margin. In some sections, more than 70% of all cars sold are Fords.

We ask you to do just one thing—Go to the nearest Ford dealer and have him take you for a ride in the new Ford. Drive it yourself. Give it a severe test over rough roads, in traffic, up steep hills and along the open road. Talk to Ford owners and to experienced mechanics and note what they say about low cost of operation and service.

Then you will know from your own personal experience why it is the preferred car of so many people. Then you will know that the Ford brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

New Low Ford Prices

There is a Ford car for every need and purpose at an unusually low price. Appointments and upholstery are in keeping with its mechanical excellence. You may choose from a variety of beautiful body colors.

CRASH DRIVER IS FINED $50

C. Brant Before Court After Collision on Rithet's Hill, Saanich

As an outcome of an automobile accident on Rithet's Hill, North Quadra Street, last week, Charles Brant, commission merchant, was fined $50 in Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon on a charge of driving to the common danger.

N. W. Harrup, driver of the car which collided with Mr. Brant's auto, told the circumstances of the accident, testifying the Brant car had swerved across the road before striking his car. The Harrup car was thrown against a fence and wrecked, one passenger being injured.

In evidence of other witnesses, including Chief Alan Rankin and Constable P. K. Cummings of the Saanich police, it was stated the accused was traveling at a fast rate of speed and that for a distance of 100 feet back from the point of collision there were skid marks.

For the defence Mr. Brant claimed he had been forced to swing over from the gravel on the side of the road to the asphalt just before meeting the Harrup car and in doing so had pulled the wheel a little too hard as he was not accustomed to the car. L. Branch, a passenger in his car, and E. Hill also testified for the defence.

The court ruled that Mr. Brant's car had not been driven with proper care and prudence, and imposed the fine.

Former Russian Court Luminary Dies in Poverty

Paris, July 18.—Lieutenant-General Constantin De Brummer was once a shining light at the Court of the Tsar. This week he died in a public hospital here after years of poverty in Paris, during which time he served as night watchman in a garage, and, more recently, as invoice clerk.

He was an aide-de-camp and cousin of the late ex-Grand Duke Nicholas. He was seventy-three years old.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

Nearly every tea room or coffee shop specializes in some sort of interesting open or "double-decker" sandwich. They are popular, for they are hearty enough to be used as the main dish for luncheon or supper after the theatre.

There is no reason why the home-maker may not appropriate some suggestions from the sandwich shops and make use of them in her home for family or guests.

If the materials are thoughtfully selected, this type of sandwich will provide an entire, well-balanced meal when served with coffee or some other beverage. Protein is furnished in the filling, fat is supplied in the form of butter or mayonnaise. Fresh fruit provides an ideal dessert to top off with.

Open sandwiches offer opportunity for many appetizing combinations that are decidedly summery. Toasted or untoasted bread can be used for the foundation and the "filling" may be almost anything that one would put into a salad or a sandwich. Nut bread might be covered with a fruit salad. A fruit bread is particularly good with a cheese or cream filling. Creamed butter and arrange the filling on lettuce, watercress or any salad plant.

Several kinds of breads often are combined in layer sandwiches. Whole wheat, white and rye are delicious with a filling of cream cheese and salted nuts between each layer.

Sections of tomato, radish roses, pickles and parsley make attractive garnishes for many sandwiches and add their bit of piquancy. All sorts of olives—stuffed, plain or ripe, sweet pickles, carrot straws and celery hearts make pleasing garnishes for open fruit-salad sandwiches or those made with fruit and nut breads.

Medical Group Studies Diet In Disease Prevention

By DR. MORRIS FISHER
In the section on medicine at the recent meeting of the American Medical Association in Detroit special attention was given to the manner in which the diet is now used for the prevention and control of human disease.

It was concerned with the increasing importance of the vitamins and the application of our new knowledge of nutrition to the expectant mother and the growing child which may benefit the evolution of the race. On the other hand, interpretative diets and abstention from necessary foods for the prevention of obesity may result in serious conditions and affect longevity.

Dietary cultists preach all sorts of strange notions without any basis in scientific fact.

CAN FORETELL BIRTH OF CHILD
Tests have been developed whereby it is possible to tell well in advance whether or not a woman is going to bear a child. Such tests concern an examination of the blood, of the excretions, and of the eye after certain chemicals have been used for the purpose.

A demonstration was again made of the manner in which infants are permitted to choose their own food. Selected all sorts of unusual food substances and ate them in considerable quantities without harm, proving that there is a wide margin between safety and lack of safety in infant feeding. Such methods are not offered as routine methods, but merely as experimental methods in the study of disease in childhood.

A new method of producing fever by means of electric currents and the effects of this method on patients with general paralysis were discussed. This method secures approximately the same results as have been secured by the injection of malarial organisms to produce fever and by other methods used for the purpose.

It was pointed out in the section on preventive medicine that morbidity and mortality statistics indicate that workers exposed to dust have excessive rates for diseases of the lungs. Masks used by workers infrequently give a false sense of protection. The removal or prevention of dust floating in the air is preferable to controlling the condition by other methods.

STUDY ECONOMIC FACTOR

It is an interesting factor that much of the discussion of the present session was centered around the economic problem of providing the best type of medical care to all of the people of the country at a price within their means. This, of course, is a difficult problem, because of the tremendous advances made in medical science in the past twenty-five years.

The newer technical discoveries represent an increase, particularly of apparatus, of books, and of knowledge for the physician, and in many instances the costs which are heavy are passed on to the patient. Fortunately the medical profession has these problems in mind and is doing everything possible through its own organization to develop a proper means of handling the situation.

KIWANIS FUND PAYS FOR NURSE

V.O.N. Able to Engage Special For T.B. Work, Through Seal Fund

Through the medium of the Kiwanis Club's Christmas seal fund the salary of a special public health nurse to undertake special educational and preventive work along T.B. lines and care of T.B. patients, is being paid, according to the report presented at the monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Victorian Order of Nurses.

This special nurse, who is attached to the V.O.N., made 200 visits last month to the general work. Miss Thornley, supervising nurse, reported 154 new patients taken on in the month of June. Total number of visits paid, 800. 257 were on behalf of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company; 50 pre-natal visits, 200 child welfare. Thanks are given for various donations to Mrs. Warren, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Montain, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Clester, Mrs. C. Johns, Mrs. A. G. Piddington, Miss Dawson, Miss Galt, Miss E. Duke, Mrs. Syster, Mrs. Ross Sutherland, Mrs. Harding and others.

FASHION PLAQUE

This little summer bag of white crepe, simply trimmed with a button of crepe and marcelle was seen at the National Golf Club of Southampton.

YOUR CHILDREN

Frickly heat! Most of us have had it, and ask ourselves: "The skin looks a bit rough, but doesn't turn red at first. Mothers are not likely to notice it until the rash appears."

It is caused by irritation or rubbing and the acids of perspiration. Of course, it is inadvisable to bat too often. Babies are more susceptible, but all babies are likely to have it.

Cleanliness is of the greatest importance in preventing it, but sometimes, in spite of the greatest care, it will come. However, that is the greatest thing to keep in mind in the care of the baby. Instant changing and thorough sponging and drying are necessary.

OFTEN AFFECTS BACK
A baby's back is fertile ground for the pest. This is because he lies on his back so much. Perspiration has no chance to evaporate, and even if he has no dress on, the sheets rub him. Try placing him on his stomach. It sometimes when you put him down for his nap. He doesn't need a pillow and he'll turn his head to one side for air. Keep an eye on him when he is in this position and see that he is comfortable. This is a good position for babies occasionally, anyway.

Now you'll want to do something for him besides keeping him sweet and clean and cool—if the prickly heat already has appeared.

If it isn't a bad case, a little dusting of talcum powder will relieve it and dry it up. If the skin is broken and chafed, wet it with water and dry it. See that your hands are scrubbed clean, and never let anything but white cloth absolutely clean and sterile touch him.

If the outbreak is severe, try making a paste of cool starch. Let it cool and use it generously on the chafed skin. Allow it to stay on, and cover it with pieces of very soft old linen. Some doctors will suggest a paste of zinc—a fine white oil-free powder that is healing and that spreads over the skin, preventing perspiration and friction. But perhaps this isn't always the best thing, especially for large surfaces. If the baby's poops are to be kept open, it should be kept away from the baby's mouth very carefully.

Talcum is a good preventative—baby talcum—but it serves its own purpose and a stiff case of prickly heat needs more strenuous treatment.

BATHE WITH STARCH
The starch also may be used in bath form. Take a cupful of the cooled starch (laundry starch) and add it to a gallon of warm water. Bathe the baby in this.

Soda baths are also helpful. Two tablespoons of baking soda to a gallon of water is the proportion. It is better to dissolve the soda first in a little hot water.

Sometimes, in very hot weather, bran baths are substituted for the regular soap and water bath. Put a handful or so of bran in a little bag of cheesecloth. Don't put it in the bath water and squeeze out frequently until the water is cloudy. The bran bath is good for the prickly heat sufferer or for other cases of chafing or inflammation of the skin. Never rub chafed skin. Pat it softly.

She Sure Does
He: "Do you smoke?"
She: "No, I don't smoke."
"Do you drink?"
"No, I don't drink."
"Do you neck?"
"No, I don't neck."
"Well, what do you do?"
"I tell lies."

Company.

MEMORIAL GIFT TO SOLARIUM

Sons of Late Mrs. Chas. F. Todd Give $5,000 For Cot Endowment

The memory of the late Mrs. Charles F. Todd is to be perpetuated at the Queen Alexandra Solarium, the board of directors at its meeting yesterday receiving notification of a gift of $5,000 from W. C. and E. D. Todd in memory of their mother. The money will be devoted to a permanent cot endowment.

ACCOMMODATION TAKED
The June report showed that the daily average for the month was fifty-five patients, which is the limit of the institution's capacity. The total number of patients cared for in the Solarium during June was sixty-two, of which three were Indians. The per capita cost was $1.79, and total income $4,470.62.

These figures emphasized the need for the extra accommodation which will be available on the completion of the new Shrine unit, which, according to the report of the building committee, should be ready for occupation early in the autumn. An anonymous donation of $100 and many offers of assistance in construction, without charge, followed the recent announcement of the intention to construct a tannin court for the use of patients and nurses, and the building committee was authorized to proceed on it at once.

A cheque of $8 from Mrs. A. R. Johnson, of the Harrup Women's Institute, was much appreciated, the donor having raised the sum by the sale of bulbs. The secretary reported three or four instances in which women's institutes in the Province were supporting children from their own districts who are patients in the hospital.

An appeal was made for jam, fresh fruit and vegetables, unlimited supplies of which are needed in an institution whose patients for the most part have healthy childish appetites.

Mrs. Curtis Sampson, the president, was in the chair.

NEED FUNDS FOR SUNSHINE CAMP

Social Service League Hoping to Send More Mothers Out

The Sunshine Camp at Sassex, organized by the Social Service League for the benefit of poor mothers and children who otherwise would be unable to get a much-needed rest from household cares, is now in full swing, but money is urgently needed if the league is to carry out its proposed programme. Up to date it has been possible to give a holiday to thirty families. Many more are promised, and still many more are patiently waiting to see if there will be a possible chance for them.

ONLY SEVEN DOLLARS FOR WEEK
It is the wish of the league that none be disappointed; they will do their part if the citizens stand behind them.

Anyone interested in the work is invited to visit the Sunshine Camp and ask the guests themselves if they think the undertaking is worth while. A donation of $7 will keep one mother and one child at the camp for a week. One little girl said she was going to save her ice cream money for the Sunshine Camp, and in a very short time, much to her surprise, she had sufficient to give a little girl of her own age a holiday at the camp for a week. This set her chum thinking and she decided to save her picture show money for a little while, and in a short time she had sufficient to pay for another girl's holiday at the camp. Plenty of small contributions are quite as acceptable as larger ones. How much it adds to one's own holiday to know you have made it possible for someone else to have a vacation with three good meals every day. It not only means a good time for two weeks, but added to that, a degree of renewed strength and vigor for another year.

Some thoughtful friends have donated towards a much-needed ice-box in order to protect the food, and especially the milk for the babies during the warm weather. It is hoped others will be interested to the extent that it may be possible to make this purchase.

The league takes pleasure in acknowledging the following recent contributions: Esquimalt Women's Institute, $20; F. G. H. $1.10; E. F. Jennings, $5; J. Dunford, $10; W. A. Belmont Avenue United Church, $10; S. J. Pitts, $30; Mrs. Cecil Abbott, $30. Further contributions may be sent to, or left at, room 45, Arcade Building.

Colfax Lodge Has Installation

There was an excellent attendance of members and visitors at the last meeting of Colfax Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, when the officers for the ensuing term were installed.

The installation ceremony was ably performed by Mrs. Charlotte Edwards, district deputy president, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Gardiner, deputy marshal; Mrs. Thelma Green, deputy warden; Miss Margaret Stewart and Mrs. Rhoda Oard, deputy secretaries; Mrs. Edith Todd, assembly treasurer; Miss Vera Bickle, deputy musician; Miss Laura Bell, deputy chaplain; Mrs. Sara Bainbridge and Miss Madge Randall, deputy guardians.

The officers installed were: Miss Dora Stocken, noble grand; Mrs. Marie Perry, vice-grand; Mrs. F. A. Walder, recording secretary; Mrs. Ada Kirk, financial secretary; Miss Jennie Batchelor, treasurer; Miss Roscoe, warden; Mrs. Edith Newman, conductor; Mrs. M. Watson, chaplain; Mrs. Mabel Fleming, R.S.N.O.; Miss Levis Johnston, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. Cora Kerr, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Parlee, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Lola Walker, I.G.; Mrs. Jennie Pollard, O.G., and A. L. Curtis, pianist. J. Davis was appointed degree staff captain.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Mored will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will ensure a personal reply.

CAN THE MOTHER BE REPLACED BY A COMPETENT MAID?

Whenever the family is compelled to wrestle with inadequate finances the problem of pursuing a career, or a job, or devoting oneself to the care of one's children rears its head as a real problem. Sometimes it actually is more important to bring in a weekly pay envelope, however small, than to count that one's energies have a money value in the home. This value, unfortunately, cannot be used for paying the grocery bill nor buying shoes and stockings for the flock.

In this case there is no problem for the mother has to work, and she must replace her service with the help of relatives or unselfish grandmother, giving her children the remnants of her time and energy when she is gone.

However, there remains the second problem, about which I have been asked to comment, isn't the small baby just as well off without the mother? Isn't it more broadening for her and, incidentally, more stimulating for the child, to have her work than to be confined in four walls and devoted to just mothercraft? Can't the baby's physical care be just as well handled by a servant as the mother?

MORE THAN PHYSICAL CARE

We want to be honest about this. There are some mothers who, despite motherhood, are not good mothers. They chafe and fret at the confinement of home. They hate taking care of a baby, and the baby gets no pleasure nor benefit from the companionship of such a mother.

But there is no truth in the contention that a small baby needs only physical care. If we could divide the baby into segments and say this is physical, this is mental, this is social, etc., we might be able to argue in that manner. But the physical care is also the mental, since everything done for the baby from the day of birth is developing to every other part of him. Institution babies get excellent physical care, but they, by the very nature of things, cannot get mothering, and there's no doubt that they do not thrive and flourish and develop as they do when placed in individual homes where mothering is automatically provided.

The young baby isn't as much of a machine as we may consider him. The finished product is the result of the friction, the stimulus of the love and pettings that he gets from the day of his birth.

We must take for granted that the mother capable of holding a position, making it possible to provide an adequate substitute for herself, is the type of mother who can least be dispensed with in the home. She is the educated, managerial, creative-minded person whose services have a value any place. In the home this isn't dollars and cents, but the worth-while companionship and the educational background she can furnish her children are not to be replaced by any helper whom she can hire for a few dollars to come in and follow her directions.

We honestly do not think that a mother can slough off these responsibilities even in the pre-school years; in fact, even less than in the school years when the child no longer depends upon the mother for his constant companionship.

This is just my opinion, Mrs. R. H. A., and, therefore, worth just that and no more.

GIRL RIDER IS BRIDE AT PRETTY WEDDING TO-DAY

trict. Symbolic of the name of the lodge, a rainbow was erected in the drawing-room, under which the bride couple stood during the reception, while the three-tier wedding cake, which crowned the dining table, was surrounded by tulle, held in place with silver horseshoes, silver wedding bells and silver slippers. Shred pink tapers in silver scones also adorned the table.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod later left for Seattle, en route to California, where the honeymoon will be spent at mountain resorts. For traveling, the bride wore a French imported ensemble of egg-shell georgette, with tuck-in blouse, pleated skirt and coat finished with pink and cream colored scarf. Her hat was of eggshell silk straw with fluted brim.

On their return to British Columbia, the young couple will make their home on Angus Drive, Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. C. W. Dunn of Crofton, aunt of the bride; Mrs. J. G. Mills of Vancouver, and Mrs. L. Ashby of Duncan, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Foote of Crofton, Mrs. Williams-Freeman of Duncan, and others.

The Low Cost of Health

Some people spend a lot of money for Health and don't get it. No matter how much you spend for it, health will not come with wrong food habits. A bowl of Shredded Wheat and milk for breakfast every morning will go a long way toward repairing the damage done by foolish food habits. Singer's Furious Attack Brings Him World Lightweight Title

THE SPORTS MIRROR

NOW THAT it has been definitely decided that Scotland and Wales will be represented by separate teams, a survey of the strength of England in the British Empire Games at Hamilton next month is in order. While undoubtedly a great many of England's best track and field athletes will come from colleges, all her strength is not confined there, as indicated by the sterling performances of Cyril Ellis, R. H. Thomas and others.

England has always been able to hold her own in international competition in all the track events from 100 yards to six miles, being only to the Poles in anything over a mile. In spite of the manner in which the United States universities and colleges produce outstanding performers, England has invariably been able to produce men equally as good at the shorter distances, and this year is no exception to the rule.

In England a man only gets credit for what he actually accomplishes. No attempt is made to bolster up his performance, and unless conditions of competition are according to the letter of the law record-breaking efforts are not recognized. Promoters of sports meets in England operate on a somewhat different basis from those in the United States. There is not the same urge for sensationalism, and for that reason the fun of friendly competition comes before the frenzied effort to win and desire to set records. Consideration of these facts are in order when an attempt is made to compare the performances of English athletes with the accomplishments of United States college stars.

Checking over England's prospects for Empire Games, it is evident that the Old Country will display just as much strength as she has ever done on the track and a great deal more in the field. Gradually in England and throughout the Empire, increased attention is being paid to field events. Realization of the fact that in order to get anywhere in international competition closer attention must be paid to the field events has been responsible for the improvement shown.

Recently the Achilles Club, an organization of Oxford-Cambridge athletes, met teams representing Berlin, Deutscher Club, Germany, and Stade Francaise, France, in a match of ten events at Stamford Bridge. The English team was successful in rolling up a total of 72 points, against 44 by Stade Francaise and 34 for the Berliner and Deutscher Clubs.

The success of English athletes in this match will give some intimation of the calibre of the athletes who will carry the red rose in competition at Hamilton. In the 100 yards, Cyril Ellis and H. J. Cohen finished first and second respectively in ten seconds flat, being but inches apart at the finish. The half-mile, T. H. Simpson beat Max Martin, the great Frenchman in 1:55.3. C. E. Green was third, with the German, Markt, fourth. The high jump went to Bradwode, of the Achilles Club, with a jump of 6 ft. 3 in. Lord Burghley got over the 120 yards high hurdles in 1:44 seconds and fourth broke the English record, with R. St. G. Harper second.

Add R. M. N. Tisdall to the list of hurdlers and England would be equal to the very best in the world. Tisdall, by the way, gives every promise of developing into one of the world's greatest athletes, being a very versatile performer.

The quarter-mile in this match was won by R. Leigh-Wood, who captained the Oxford-Cambridge team on its visit to Hamilton and to the United States last summer. Leigh-Wood defeated Sers Martin of France with 1:10 seconds. The Frenchman, H. J. Townsend, another Englishman third. The time, 50.2-5, was not exceptional, but it is known that England's best quarter-milers are capable of doing 48 seconds. The Frenchmen and Germans were unequal to the task of winning the mile, in which Cornees and Morgan placed first and second. Cornees' time being 4:41, 23.83 sec. England can be expected to send four milers to Hamilton who will better 4:30.

R. W. Evans won the broad jump with a leap of 23 ft. 2 1/2 in., ample indication of the fact that the English athletes are gradually approaching the marks set by the best United States athletes.

On the shot, R. L. Howland achieved 45 ft. 11 in. The English native shot-put record was 44 ft. 11 in., held by Dr. Rex Woods, who was runner-up in the Empire tourney.

The English track and field team will sail for Canada on August 5. The officers of the British A.A.A. have been most enthusiastic in their support of Empire Games, and it is their intention to field the very strongest team that can be possibly gathered together. Not only do they desire to make great showing in Empire Games, but they are also determined to make it possible for the Empire to send a powerful aggregation to Chicago for the International Match with the United States on August 27.

Mandell Withers Before Terrific Blows To Go Out

Flaming Youth From New York Puts Lightweight Champion Down for Count in First Round of Sensational Bout; Mandell Crashes to Canvas Three Times Before Staying Down; Blood Seeps From Champ's Eyes and Mouth as He Hangs Over Ropes; Mandell Will Most Likely Retire; 25,000 Attend.

New York, July 18.—A furious chunk of bone and muscle in the person of eager young Al Singer swept over Sammy Mandell yesterday evening and smashed the veteran champion of the lightweights loose from his title in less than a round.

A flaming youth who could not be denied by the craft and guile of the 135-pound ruler for the last four years, Singer swept over the champion with all the suddenness of a bolt from the calm sky, crashed him to the floor three times and then finished him with a right hand clout to the jaw. The round lasted only one minute and forty-six seconds.

LOCAL HORSE HAS NOTABLE FAMILY TREE

Tetroy, Now Stabled at Willows, Comes From Line of English Turf Champions

While the ponies are doing their gallops on mainland tracks at the present time, horsemen at local tracks are preparing for the opening of racing on the Island at the Colwood track, August 6.

Several well-known horses in these parts have been wintered at the local tracks, and are being brought into shape for the current season.

Stabled at the Willows at the present time is a pony with the blood of champions, and although it is under the name of Tetroy, it is understood he will not run during the race meets this year, he is to be used for stud purposes by his owner, Major H. A. Rhodes. The horse is Tetroy, by Hartington out of Victory.

FINE ANCESTORS
Tetroy comes from a long strain of champions, its pedigree shows. His grandsire was Tetrah, unbeaten at Hamilton. In the 100 yards, Tetrah and H. J. Cohen finished first and second respectively in ten seconds flat, being but inches apart at the finish. The half-mile, T. H. Simpson beat Max Martin, the great Frenchman in 1:55.3. C. E. Green was third, with the German, Markt, fourth. The high jump went to Bradwode, of the Achilles Club, with a jump of 6 ft. 3 in. Lord Burghley got over the 120 yards high hurdles in 1:44 seconds and fourth broke the English record, with R. St. G. Harper second.

JUNIOR BASEBALL
Clouting three pitchers freely, the Rose Buds went into first place in the Junior Baseball League yesterday evening by their 11 to 8 victory over the Nippones at Beach Park. The next fixture will be played Tuesday at 6:30 o'clock at the Hill, between the Cubs and Nippones.

The British A.A.A. will also have others of equal merit to select from. J. A. Hanlon, S. E. Englehart, and W. J. Simmons are sprinters of ability, and they along with a host of first-class men from the various athletic clubs will make a determined bid for a place on the team.

The English track and field team will sail for Canada on August 5. The officers of the British A.A.A. have been most enthusiastic in their support of Empire Games, and it is their intention to field the very strongest team that can be possibly gathered together. Not only do they desire to make great showing in Empire Games, but they are also determined to make it possible for the Empire to send a powerful aggregation to Chicago for the International Match with the United States on August 27.

Five C's Lucky To Gain Draw In B.C. Cricket Tournament

Victoria Eleven Retains Position at Top of Standings Following No Decision Match With Vancouver Wednesday; Islanders Forced to Play Slow Cricket to Stave Off Defeat; Upper Island Wins From Burrards.

Team	P	W	L	D	Pts.
Five C's Victoria	4	2	0	2	8
Vancouver Wednesday	4	2	0	2	8
Vancouver	4	1	1	2	5
Upper Island	4	1	2	1	4
Burrards	4	1	2	1	4
Vancouver Oils	4	1	3	0	2

Vancouver, July 18.—Vancouver Wednesday eleven and Five C's of Victoria played to a draw in Thursday's games of the Pacific Coast cricket series, leaving these two teams still tied for leading position.

Upper Island beat Burrards and Vancouver defeated the Oils. Batting for three and a half hours in compiling a score of 228 for nine wickets, declared, Vancouver Wednesday team practically forced the visiting Five C's eleven to play for a draw, in the feature game of the series on the oval.

At the call of time the Cathedral players had 81 runs on the board for the loss of six wickets. Eric Wain, of local soccer fame, endowed the contest with interest by playing a dashing innings for 65, not out, and Ward assisted with next best score of 58 in the Wednesday players efforts with 44 and 22. Allen, 3 for 66; Darcus, 3 for 22; Allen, 2 for 59; Eric Quantin, 1 for 65; Sparks, 0 for 3.

UPPER ISLAND WINS
On the upper Point ground the visiting Upper Island cricketers defeated the Burrard bowling and hit up a declared total of 249 for 10 wickets. Bismarck played for 78 and Neil for 60, not out. The Burrard bowling and fielding was distinctly "off color." With the exception of a partnership lasting fifty-five minutes by Ivamy and Hillingworth, the Burrard innings lacked enterprise. The final time set for drawing stamps with Burrard's total at 157, Ivamy scored 97 for the losers and Mitchell took half the wickets at a cost of 49 runs.

On the lower Point enclosure Vancouver hit up 155 and won by dismissing the Oils for 132. Grieved with Burrard's total of 249, the Oils' best batting display for the winners, with Cobbett the most successful bowler for the Oils. For the lower Temple enclosure a commendable effort to pull the team through in a vigorous innings for 58. Bullen secured five wickets and conceded 45 runs, and Reed took four for 38 for the winners.

WEDNESDAY INNINGS
Chamberlain, b. Eden Quantin, 33; Houlbail, c. Comley, b. Darcus, 5; Lester, c. Comley, b. Ed. Quantin, 30; Booth, c. Pillar, b. Darcus, 30; Ward, b. Allen, 58; Burrard, c. Comley, b. Allen, 58; G. Cole, b. Darcus, 5; Wilson, c. Sparks, b. Darcus, 7 for 54; Howarth, 0 for 10; Bowles, 0 for 10; Bains, 0 for 10; Burrard, 0 for 3.

A's Win Seventh Straight To Make Gain On Senators

Philadelphia Defeats Chicago While Washington Is Tossed for Loss by Cleveland; Present Western Trip Has Been Disastrous for Senators; Chicago Wins Thirteen-inning Battle From Brooklyn to Cut Lead of National League Leaders.

The current western trip of the eastern clubs of the American League is proving rather painful to the Washington Senators. The Senators left home as league-leaders and now are three and a half games behind first place and only four ahead of the third-place New York Yankees. Washington dropped another close encounter yesterday, going down 4 to 3 before the Indians as Eddie Morgan drove in three runs with a home run and a single.

Champions and leaders, the Philadelphia Athletics, made it seven straight wins by slugging out another victory over Chicago White Sox, 12 to 8. The Yankees aided themselves and the Boston Red Sox as well by hammering the St. Louis Browns for twenty-one hits and a 16 to 7 victory. Besides improving their position the Yankees showed St. Louis into last place as Boston trounced the Detroit Tigers 12 to 2.

Chicago and Brooklyn again were the leading lions in the National League's arena and they lost at each other for thirteen innings before the Cubs finally gained a 6 to 3 decision in a reduced Brooklyn's lead from three to two games.

New York and St. Louis, staging their own crucial series with third place at stake, committed nine errors between them. The Giants won out, 12 to 9, although they were out-hit 20 to 16. The victory gave New York a margin of two games.

The first three clubs of the second division drew a bit closer together in their private race as Pittsburgh gained a 6 to 2 decision over the Boston Braves and the Cincinnati Reds played havoc with Philadelphia pitching for a 14 to 9 victory.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Chicago, July 18.—Philadelphia Athletics took a lead of three and one-half games over the Washington club yesterday by defeating Chicago, 12 to 8, as Cleveland won over Washington. Al Thomas started for the Sox and pitched well until the sixth, when the A's nipped him for three runs. When the seventh they scored five more markers and Thomas was relieved by Walsh.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Detroit, July 18.—The Boston Red Sox hit three Detroit pitchers, hard to take a 12 to 2 decision over the Tigers in the second game of their series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
St. Louis, July 18.—The New York Yankees made it two straight over the Browns by defeating them 7 to 1 yesterday. Harry Rice hit a home run with the bases full in the ninth inning.

St. Louis, July 18.—The New York Yankees made it two straight over the Browns by defeating them 7 to 1 yesterday. Harry Rice hit a home run with the bases full in the ninth inning.

COAST LEAGUE
San Francisco, July 18.—Seattle bunched hits on the Missions in the first and seventh innings yesterday, and won 5 to 2.

Zahner kept the local's outfield scattered. Holland, Indian outfielder, was leader of the attack with four hits and two runs in five times up. Right Fielder Lee abetting him with three hits. Only two Seattle's failed to hit.

Seattle scored 5 to 14. Batteries—Zahner and Berresant; Cole and Hoffman.

TORY CRY OF

"BLUE RUIN"

Lapointe, Speaking at Kapuskasing, Ont., Says Pessimism Not Wanted

Minister of Justice Points to Increase in Per Capita Trade
During Liberal Regime

By ROONEY PELLETIER, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.

Kapuskasing, Ont., July 18.—
The cry of "blue ruin" and pessimism which he said had characterized the Conservative election campaign to date was deprecated by
Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Federal Minister of Justice, addressing a large audience here yesterday afternoon in the interests of Joseph Brant.
Liberal candidate for the Commons in the riding of North Temiskam-ing. He spoke in both English and French.

The Minister of Justice dealt exhaustively with the record of the King Government, stressing particularly what he termed "the beneficial influence" of Liberal economic and tariff policies.

COMPARISON INVITED

"The proof of our good work in these fields can be found most forcibly," he said, "by comparing the country ten years ago and the country to-day."
"When we reduced the tariff we were accused by the Conservatives of ruining the country," Mr. Lapointe continued, "but if Canada had really been ruined each time the Conservatives

said so, I would not be here to-day
speaking to you."

Trade had materially increased under
the Liberal Government, Mr. Lapointe said, and this in itself was an indication of prosperity.

FOREIGN TRADE

Canada, Mr. Lapointe said, was now trading with thirty-four countries.
"Our foreign trade has increased sixty per cent, and although we are the twentieth nation in point of population, from a standpoint of world trade
we rank fifth," he said. "Canada," he proceeded, "is the first country in the world from the viewpoint of per capita
trade and of that we must feel proud.
Remember, too, that it is due in great measure to the sound administration
of the King Government."

Speaking in French, he stressed the necessity of good relations with Great Britain and other parts of the Empire.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the under-

accused by the Conservatives of ruining the country," Mr. Lapointe continued, "but if Canada had really been ruined each time the Conservatives
said so, I would not be here to-day
speaking to you."

Trade had materially increased under
the Liberal Government, Mr. Lapointe
said, and this in itself was an indication of prosperity.

FOREIGN TRADE

Canada, Mr. Lapointe said, was now
trading with thirty-four countries.
"Our foreign trade has increased sixty
per cent, and although we are the twentieth nation in point of population, from a standpoint of world trade
we rank fifth," he said. "Canada," he
proceeded, "is the first country in the world from the viewpoint of per capita
trade and of that we must feel proud.
Remember, too, that it is due in great measure to the sound administration
of the King Government."

Speaking in French, he stressed the necessity of good relations with Great Britain and other parts of the Empire.

NEWS IN BRIEF

A grass fire on the old Indian reserve shortly after noon today gave the fire department a run. It burned for about half an hour before being quelled.

Ernest Wells, who pleaded guilty in Oak Bay Police Court to a charge of stealing a bicycle from the Victoria Golf Club, was given suspended sentence by Magistrate George Jay.

The Oak Bay Council at its meeting yesterday accepted the resignation of W. B. S. Watson, assistant to the municipal engineer of the district. Mr. Watson will relinquish his duties at the end of this month.

Herbert Vye was fined $10 in Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon for committing damage to a crop of hay, in which his cattle were grazing. He was also ordered to pay $10 compensation to the owner of the hay, I. W. Townsend.

The cost of establishing a garbage collection system in Saanich, exclusive of Ward Two and part of Ward One abutting on Quadra Street, will be ascertained by municipal officials, following a request, yesterday evening by Councilor P. J. Crowhurst for information. The defeat of the by-law last Saturday was attributed by the councillor to opposition in Ward Seven. Councilor Crowhurst announced that the Ward Two garbage dump at Lake Road will be closed forthwith.

Receipts in Oak Bay for the last six months were $217,728, which is $1,500 higher than those for the same period last year, but it includes an amount granted from the Provincial Government for the new High School. It was reported to a meeting of the Oak Bay Council last evening. The percentage current, taxes paid is 95.25 as compared with 94.50 the same time last year. Receipts from the sale of tax-sale lands, however, are running considerably below estimates, $97,888 being required to complete the estimated receipts for the first half of the year.

NORTH SAANICH SEES BIG PLANE LAND IN HARBOR

North Saanich turned air-minded yesterday evening and hundreds of residents of the district gathered around the Shoal Harbor waterfront when one of the big Victoria-Yankee cover air liners dropped down around the harbor and then landed on the water.

Capt. Howard Payne, managing-director of the Victoria-Edmonds ferry line, who was in charge of the plane, which landed at 8:30 o'clock, fifteen minutes later he boarded a Fairchild plane in charge of Capt. Mackenzie, who was in charge of the ferry. The plane, which was a Fairchild, was a four-engine biplane, and was piloted by Capt. Mackenzie. The plane was in the harbor when it was sighted, and it was seen to land on the water. The plane was seen to land on the water, and it was seen to land on the water.

There passed away very suddenly in Vancouver on Thursday, July 17, John Stewart Winter, a native son of this city. The remains will be brought to Victoria and conveyed to Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

CHEQUE THIEF

SENTENCED BY JUDGE BARKER

Nanaimo, July 18.—William Kirkwood, a former resident of Nanaimo, was convicted by Judge Barker in the County Court this morning on a charge of theft of $150 in cheques from a fellow employee at the Robert Dollar Camp at Courtenay and was sentenced to four months in jail.

Barker was arrested in Vancouver on July 8. Evidence was presented to him that he had cashed the cheques by making purchases from Powers and Doyle, the owners of Nanaimo, the cheques then bearing endorsements since pronounced to be forgeries.

Frank Fredrickson, member of the Victoria Cougars when they won the Stanley Cup in 1924-25, and now manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National Hockey League, was a visitor in the city today.

Mrs. Fredrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson will remain in this city for a couple of days, returning to their home in Winnipeg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson have been attending the international Gyro convention in Tacoma.

"I'll never be satisfied until I get back here to reside," said Freddie, and Mrs. Freddie nodded her endorsement.

Bruce McBean
Here on Vacation

Bruce McBean, big wheat man of Winnipeg, has arrived in Victoria to spend ten days' vacation at the Empress Hotel.

His wife and family arrived here a few days ago and he joined them today after making a crop survey of the prairie.

U.S. Leading In Davis Cup Play Against Italians

Auteuil, France, July 18.—The United States had won one match and was leading in the other when darkness interrupted the inter-zone Davis Cup tennis final between the United States and Italy today. Wilmer Allison edged out a dramatic victory over Giorgio Delio in the first match, 4-6, 7-9, 6-4, 8-0, 10-8 and George Lott led Earl Humbert de Morpurgo in the second, 5-6, 9-7, 10-8.

SCOTTISH BAND HOLDS CONCERT WITH DAUNTLESS

Renew Friendship Which Started at Maple Bay With Enjoyable Evening

Benedict Bantley and Sergt. Major Green Pay Visit to Mess

While the 16th Canadian Scottish band at Maple Bay the band from B.M.S. Dauntless and the Canadian Scottish band entertained the camp with musical concerts. The bandmen became fast friends and promised themselves a reunion when the Dauntless should again visit Victoria. Yesterday evening the opportunity arrived and after holding a joint rehearsal in the quarters of the 16th band in the Armouries from 8 to 9 p.m. the bands adjourned to the mess and spent the evening until near midnight in real sailor and soldier fashion. Bandmaster James M. Miller welcomed the bandmen from the Dauntless, saying his men had been looking forward to the evening to renew friendships started at Maple Bay.

In reply Bandmaster Simpkins, on behalf of the members of the Dauntless band, expressed the pleasure it gave them to once again meet the members of the 16th.

An impromptu concert was given by members of both bands as follows: Bandmaster Simpkins, Bandman Selick and Bandman Craven of the Dauntless; Band Sergt. North, Bandman Pim, Panthorpe, Holmes and Davidson; a trio by Lane, Muirhead and Michaux; a recitation by Bandmaster-Sergeant "Webster" and a piano solo by "Benny" Bantley.

During the evening Regimental Sergeant-Major Green paid a visit and was presented to both bands. Bandmaster Miller, on behalf of the members of the 16th, congratulated Mr. Green on his recent appointment to his position in the regiment, and wished him the very best of success.

The "Dauntless" of the 16th received a welcome surprise when Bandmaster Miller introduced an old friend of many Victoria musicians in the person of Benedict Bantley, who is on a visit to the Dauntless. "Benny" (as he is popularly known) expressed his pleasure to again renew acquaintance with the 16th bandmen. Mr. Bantley is at present associated with the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra. He played three of his own piano solos and accompanied many of the singers. The concert closed at 11:30 with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King."

WORK, NOT DOLE, SOLUTION FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Brownlee Announces Findings of Labor Ministers of Three Western Provinces

Suggests Federal Government Should Assist in Any Direct Relief Measures

Canadian Press
Edmonton, July 18.—General sentiment of the unemployment conference here of the three western provinces was that provision of work rather than issuance of direct relief was the best manner of tackling the problem, and that the cost of any relief measures should be shared by the Federal Government. This was made known in an Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta.

The knotty question was under consideration throughout yesterday when the Labor Ministers of British Columbia and Alberta, along with their deputy ministers, conferred in the Alberta Parliament Buildings with Premier Brownlee, Hon. R. C. Reid, Provincial Treasurer, and Walter Sifton, Alberta Commissioner of Labor. While the general conference lasted only one day and the visiting Labor Ministers started for home, the deputies and Mr. Sifton continued in conference today.

TEXT OF STATEMENT
The statement issued by Premier Brownlee at noon today said:

"The greater part of the time of the conference was spent in an exchange of opinions between the representatives of the provinces both with respect to the probable extent of unemployment during the coming fall and winter, but more particularly as to the experience of the various governments in methods in previous years in meeting the situation."

"The experience of this province last year in the unemployment camps established for land clearing was discussed at length, as was also the question of other possible forms of work that might be undertaken, having regard to our climatic conditions in western Canada."

"It was the feeling of the meeting that as far as possible any measures undertaken should be in the nature of employment rather than by the issuing of direct relief. It was also felt that any relief measures of this kind should be shared by the Federal Government."

"The meeting was largely taken up with a discussion of ways and means and an exchange of experiences and the result will be of great assistance so far as the provinces are concerned in preparing for the larger interprovincial conference to be held in the month of August."

"Following the general conference yesterday the deputy ministers of labor of the three provinces are continuing in conference to-day for the purpose of more definitely working out details of the matters discussed and preparing reports to be submitted to the respective governments."

'GERRY' CUNNINGHAM DEFEATS CAMPBELL IN STRAIGHT SETS

"Gerry" Cunningham, Kingston Street champion, defeated Don Campbell, runner-up in the recent Victoria Tennis Club tourney, by scores of 7-6, 6-3 in their postponed quarter final match in the city clay court tennis championships this morning at Kingston Street. By his victory Cunningham secured revenge for the extra set defeat he sustained at Campbell's hands recently at the Willows. Campbell led at 4-3 in the second set, but Cunningham then applied pressure and finished with a rush to win five of the next six games. Cunningham will meet the defending champion, "Bud" Hocking, in a semi-final match this afternoon.

O'Halloran Speaks At Hampton Hall On Low Wages in Camps

The failure of the Tolmie Government to protect the interests of employees in lumber mills will be exposed this evening by C. H. O'Halloran, Nanaimo candidate at Hampton Hall, Burnside Road. He will say the omission of the government to amend the minimum wage act has resulted in men being paid as little as 10c an hour, authorized when the Liberal administration was in office.

HERE TO STUDY MOTH PEST IN AGASSIZ AREA

Dr. F. Silvestri, Noted Italian Entomologist, Interviews Officials Here

Discovered Fruit Fly Parasite in Wilds of Nigeria

To confer with leading entomologists with a view to obtaining further data concerning insect pests, Dr. Filippo Silvestri, Professor of Zoologia, Generale e Agraria nel r-Istituto Superiore Agrario, of Portici, Italy, is a visitor to the city today.

He visited the Parliament Buildings this morning to meet William Dornes, only to find that the provincial entomologist had been attending a conference at Medford, Ore.

Dr. Silvestri, who is staying at the Dominion Hotel, is in charge of the department of zoology and entomology at the University of Portici, meeting at the base of restless Vesuvius.

QUEST SUCCESSFUL
He is the man who a number of years ago penetrated into the jungle and swamp-lands of West Africa in search of the fruit fly parasite, Opius. He covered a great deal of territory in Senegambia and the Congo before he was successful in his quest in Nigeria.

He transferred the Opius to the Hawaiian Islands and succeeded in bringing under control the fruit fly Ceratitis, which had invaded the pineapple plantations.

Dr. Silvestri is chiefly interested in the biological control of insect pests.

ATTACK POPULAR
He is making a study of the satin moth which has been attacking poplars in the Fraser Valley, and particularly in the region of Agassiz.

For the last three months the professor has been lecturing at the University of St. Paul, Minnesota. He has been visiting Banff and will proceed to California before returning to Italy.

U.S. SELLING CANADA LESS SAYS EXPERT

B. C. Forbes, Visiting Vancouver, Talks of Effect of New Dunning Tariff

Writer Sees Trade Turning in Direction of Britain

Vancouver, July 18.—"Your new Canadian tariff is the Dunning budget you call it—is striking rather a bad blow at United States manufacturers," B. C. Forbes, internationally known financial writer, said in an interview following his arrival here today.

"The United States is feeling the adverse effects of this tariff. The ordinary man in the street may not attach a great deal of importance to it, but the thinking people are seriously exercised. They are even worried."

"My sympathies are entirely with Canada in this matter of tariff. I can quite understand this country, faced with the further heightening of the United States tariff wall, has decided to build up trade within the British Empire."

"In opinion the new Canadian tariff will result in a revision of the American schedule under the powers granted the President in this respect."

"The Canadian situation in Canada, Mr. Forbes offered this comment:

"It seems to me the politicians in Canada are painting altogether too dark a picture of the conditions in this country. They are doing a great deal of harm because even though a depression does not exist at present, you can talk and think yourself into one."

"Conditions in Canada are heartily sound. There is recession of trade due to influences that are world-wide."

He touched on the wheat situation, saying: "The Canadian wheat authorities should be taught a lesson by what happened last year. They would be very well advised to take what price they can get for the wheat, and keep it rolling."

"All attempts to hold or peg a natural commodity are bound to fail."

OIL MAGNATE OF CALIFORNIA RETURNS HERE

H. P. Wiggins of San Francisco. Never Happier Than When on Island

Says Victoria is One of Most Favored Spots of the Earth

"It is one of the happiest moments of my life to be on Vancouver Island," eagerly declared H. P. Wiggins, prominent oil magnate of San Francisco, who will be a guest at the Empress Hotel during the next two weeks. Mr. Wiggins drove over the Pacific Highway from the Golden Gate in his powerful automobile and accompanied only by his chauffeur.

He arrived in Victoria on Wednesday after touring the island as far as Campbell River and Spruce Lake and returned refreshed with the beauty of the countryside.

"I think this is the most wonderful spot of the many wonderful spots of the world," said Wiggins this morning. "I am never happier than when I am here."

He admitted that he was numbered among the ever increasing number of Californians who have become convinced that the British Columbia Coast, both in its climate and its people, rivals their own wonderful country to the south. He never fails to give Vancouver Island its due praise, and he alone has been responsible for the visit here of a large number of wealthy Californians.

"I would have been here last year, but I was sick and unable to travel," said Mr. Wiggins, who makes a practice of coming north every season. He is a producer of a large way of crude oil in Central California.

RINFRET SAYS LIBERALS GAIN IN ONTARIO

Montreal, July 18.—Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State, predicts the Liberals will carry thirty-five seats in Ontario in the Federal general election, a gain of over ten seats. Mr. Rinfret has just returned from a speaking tour of the province. The Dunning budget, with its seasonal tariff on fruits and vegetables and the British preferential tariff, have been enthusiastically received in Ontario, states the minister.

TWO ROBBERS IN VANCOUVER KILL WOMAN

Mrs. C. H. Scheidel Dies of Injuries Received in Her Home July 8

Vancouver, July 18.—Coroner W. D. Brydson-Jack today is awaiting the report on an autopsy on the body of Mrs. C. H. Scheidel before setting a date for the inquest. Mrs. Scheidel, aged twenty-four, who was attacked by two men in her home at 3028 Grant Street, the afternoon of July 8, died in St. Paul's Hospital yesterday evening.

Mrs. Scheidel's report to the police was that two men had forced their way into her home. One of them seized her, she said, and then something was thrown over her face. She lost consciousness.

When she recovered it was 11 p.m. Her two children lay on the floor beside her unconscious.

The interior of the house was wrecked. Pictures on the walls had been torn down, her purse, from which $15 was missing, was found partially buried in the stove. Personal pictures had been torn up and clothing in the cupboard had been cut.

She managed to put the two children, aged two years and eighteen months, in bed. Just as her husband arrived home at midnight.

Police were called and commenced an investigation, but to date have made no arrests. It is expected evidence they gathered regarding the crime will be divulged at the inquest.

Two Accused Elect Trial Without Jury

Appearing this morning in County Court before Judge P. S. Lammman Vernon H. Meadows elected trial without a jury when charged on two counts with destruction of city property while confined in the cells at the police station.

L. De Vry of Metochia, charged with a statutory offence, also elected trial without a jury. Both the accused were remanded in custody pending trial.

SYMPATHY STRIKE PARALYZES IRISH RAILWAY SYSTEM

London, July 18.—All suburban train service from Dublin, including lines between the city and Kingstown, Dalkey and Bray, was suspended to-night as the result of a strike of members of the National Railway Union in sympathy with omnibus drivers on strike for recognition of their right to belong to a trade union.

Summer Activities Call for Intensive Advertising

SUMMER—the season when the world and his wife are out of doors—on the highways—at the beach—in the garden—on the golf links—by stream and lake.

The season that develops a multitude of new wants and makes insistent demands on everyone for the goods and services necessary to the enjoyment of its varied delights.

Hot weather foods and cooling beverages — Summer frocks and garden equipment — bathing suits and sunburn alleviatives — sports clothes and furnishings for the Summer cottage — gasoline and spare tires.

And these in addition to people's normal all-year-round buying activities. For family larders and wardrobes need replenishing fully as much in July as in December. Youthful couples buy and furnish homes in August as well as in February.

Astute advertisers do not cut down their advertising when the mercury goes up. They realize that Summer, which brings Canada its $300,000,000 tourist industry, also brings them sales opportunities afforded by no other season of the year.

And they know that the quickest, most economical means of capitalizing these opportunities are the advertising columns of the daily newspapers.

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

Winnipeg, July 18.—Wheat: The wheat market was active, erratic and very nervous to-day, but there is little question but what it was the best merchandising market seen here in a long time and the volume of trade was large.

At the start Liverpool was stronger than here and there was good buying by seaboard houses and New York interests and prices scored gains of about one cent. Later there was rather heavy selling by Chicago, part of which was on spreads at 2 cents basis difference and part was believed to be straight hedging and these offerings broke the market, losing all the earlier gains, but the offers were well absorbed by international export houses who were steady buyers throughout the session and the market reacted to the high marks of the day.

There was a good demand for practically all grades of cash wheat, with spread, on the grades mostly wanted 1/2 to 1/4 better, but the larger holders of cash wheat were not offering at all freely and round lots were difficult to obtain. Most of the local exporters did a fair business in wheat overnight and total sales were estimated close to 1,000,000 bushels, but the foreign for Liverpool is very slow.

During the past twenty-four hours good rains were received in Manitoba and northern areas of Saskatchewan and Alberta, but in the central and southern areas of the two western provinces no precipitation was received, and this is where it is needed most.

Officials of the Manitoba government department of agriculture confirmed the information given that wheat is prevalent in southern Manitoba, and they state that it has also made its appearance at a few points in Saskatchewan, but so far the rust is in its early stages of development and admitted that weather conditions to-day were very favorable to its development.

Broomhall continues somewhat bullish on European crop conditions, but continues to believe that wheat should be bought on all moderate setbacks for quick profits. Wheat closed 1/2 to 1/4 higher. Liverpool cables due one cent higher on Winnipeg.

Coarse grains: These markets were decidedly strong, with rye being the leader. There was a little further export business in rye out of this market.

Barley: The market was active, but not very strong. Some enquiry also for barley. Oats quiet, but little coming out.

Flax: Very dull, no feature, the demand continues poor.

Dorothy Dix

Wives, if You Want to Help Your Husbands Succeed, Believe in Them, for a Man's Faith in Himself Sets the Measure of His Achievements, and if a Wife Destroys This She Has Destroyed His Ability to Succeed, Says Dorothy Dix

THERE is no question that women ask me oftener than this: "How can I help my husband to succeed?" To which I can reply almost in a word! Believe in him. Have faith in him. Keep him on his tiptoes by making him feel that you expect him to achieve great things.

Somehow his wife's admiration seems to be absolutely necessary to a man. As long as she thinks he is a world beater, he puts up the best fight that is in him, but when he knows that she considers him nothing but a poor weakling, without the brains or strength or courage to win out, he quits cold. His morale is gone, his energy atrophied, his ambition killed. Many a wife's belief that her husband is a failure turns him into a failure.

I knew two young men who started out in business together. They were of about equal ability. Both were intelligent, hard-working chaps, full of pep and go, but through a series of misfortunes for which they were not responsible, their venture ended disastrously.

One of the young men had a wife who believed in him. "Of course this is bad," she said to him. "It is a terrible disappointment, after all the work and thought and struggle you have put into it to see it all go blooey, but don't worry over it. It is just a temporary setback. They can't keep a good man down, and with your ability you will soon be on the top again." You'll show them.

"Suppose we do have to give up the house and the car and economize for a while. It will be fun helping you get on your feet again, and I'll yet be riding around in Rolls-Royces and wearing diamonds as big as turnpike rocks. So cheer up, my dear. Up and at them again, and this time you will land at the top. I'm your prophet, for I know my man."

And that man, because his wife was a brace and a tonic and breathed fresh hope and courage into him, has succeeded and his wife is a millionaire who could buy out an automobile or a jewelry shop if she wanted to.

The other man's wife was of a different calibre. When the business went to pot, she sat down and wept and lamented, and beat upon her breast over their misfortune and reproached her husband with his lack of judgment and wondered why he didn't have enough sense to make money he never would succeed, anyway.

She croaked failure at the poor fellow until she killed the last bit of self-confidence he had, and he lost faith in his own ability. She went about telling everybody that poor, dear John just didn't seem to have any business faculty, or know how to get along, until she made John actually believe himself that he was so incompetent that there was no use in his trying anything for himself again.

And John to-day is holding down a small job that barely makes a poor living. He is a failure, sunk by his wife's lack of faith in him.

When women think about helping their husbands, they always have some chimerical dream of writing a book or a play that will make a vast fortune, or being offered a million-dollar contract to go into the movies, none of which ever happens. Or else they try to do it by pinching nickels and nursing dimes and cutting down on the grocery bill and wearing their year-before-last's hats.

Now, of course, when a woman marries a poor man who is ambitious to succeed, thrift is absolutely essential, for it takes money to make money and the door of opportunity is only opened with a golden key.

But thrift is only a small part of the technique of success, and it is far more important for a woman to inspire her husband to make money than it is for her to save it. Far more important for her to keep up his fighting spirit, to bolster up his belief in his star, to keep his faith in himself alive, than it is for her to do without things. Far better for her to be a fluttering flag of victory always waving before his eyes than to be a bundle of rags at home.

For, while a man may not always be able to do all he thinks he can do, he assuredly can do nothing that he thinks he cannot do. His faith in himself sets the measure of his achievements, and if his wife destroys this, she has destroyed his ability to succeed. It is the man who never knows when he is beaten who is unbeatable.

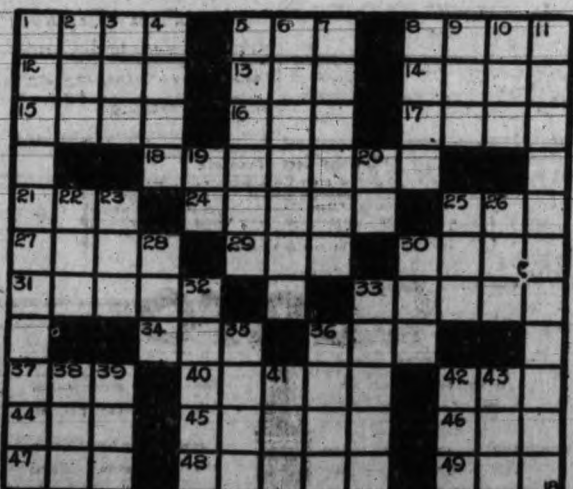

It is a common thing to see men slow down as soon as they are married. All of us know men who, when they were young, were full of promise, and who have just fizzled out and amounted to nothing. Before marriage they were keenly interested in their professions or their business; they read and studied and talked of nothing but their cases, or the bridges they were building, or the cotton business, and we fully expected them to become big doctors or lawyers or engineers or big business men. But after marriage they just seemed to lose their grip and settled down into mediocrity.

Nine times out of ten the secret of these men's failure is that they married women who were human wet blankets. They had wives who didn't believe in them, wives who had no faith in their ability, and who knocked everything they did, and belittled all their achievements until they killed their self-confidence and made failures of them.

So I say: Wives, if you want to help your husbands, believe in them. DOROTHY DIX.

Circulation Increase of 11,368 Shown Over First Six Months of 1929

An increase of 11,368 books in the circulation of the Victoria Public Library during the first six months of 1929 was shown over the corresponding period last year, according to the figures released by the library yesterday. At the end of June 19,941 books had been borrowed from the racks.

An increase of 660 borrowers was also shown in the figures, this year's number being 22,756. Victoria contributed 535 new borrowers, Oak Bay 125, and Esquimalt sixty-five. Non-residents numbered two and Saanich showed a decrease in registration of sixty-seven. Late spring cleaning was observed at the library last week, when the buildings were closed to the public. Books were taken from the racks and dusted. Old ones were discarded and the rooms were subjected to a thorough cleaning and disinfecting before the painters started work on the walls and ceilings.

FINDS FUN BEATS SEX IN MOVIE COMEBACK

Marie Dressler's 60 Years and 200 Pounds Proved No Handicap In Hard Climb Back to Outstanding Popularity

By GILBERT SWAN

MARIE DRESSLER, who at the age of sixty finds herself heroine of the most spectacular "come-back" since the talkies were born, views this achievement as a triumph of laughter over sex appeal.

Having upset all the rules of Hollywood concerning the supremacy of youth and beauty, Miss Dressler, who chose early in life to dub herself "the ugly duckling," will tell you that creating laughter is a very mature job, and the toughest in the world.

"The first fifty years may be the hardest, but the last fifty are the funniest," she philosophized while vacationing between pictures. "You can't really be funny on the stage until you've grown old enough and sensible enough not to care how you look. There have been a few cases where beautiful youngsters really let themselves go in comedy—as in the case of Mabel Normand, or Marion Davies, who is a very fine comedienne.

WHERE OLD TROUPERS WIN

"But youth, in general, is vain. It insists on a sort of pseudo-dignity that the years can remove. You've got to forget all about your appearance if you're going to make the public laugh. Sex appeal may come and go, but all the world loves a laugh. And don't forget this—comedy requires a working knowledge of the psychology of life. That's where we old troupers come in. We've lived long enough to know how human beings behave."

And, as every film fan knows, Miss Dressler has achieved her purpose so well that she has "stolen" half a dozen pictures right out from under some of the most sex-appealing beauties of the cinema.

And, besides, she knew she was going to get a "big break" because the stars told her all about it several years ago. She admits a mystical interest in astrology and several of the world's famous horoscopes charted her rise for the current year.

Yet nine years ago, it seemed that after all her years of trouping, the famous Marie Dressler was "through." One generation had known her with. They had followed her career through the old Weber and Fields period, through the Lillian Russell years and the days when "La Mascotte" and "The Black Hussars" were the music show favorites. She became a sort of international personality. She has gone to Europe every year since she was twenty; she has appeared before every royal personage of the past generation; she has known personally every celebrity of this era. She is credited with a sufficient number of friends to elect a president for the United States and kindness in endless assemblages. Her fellow-players pay her the greatest of tributes, that of displaying no professional jealousy where she is concerned.

fessional jealousy where she is concerned.

WILL PLAY ANY PART

How to laugh your way to sixty, in the face of all sorts of discouraging circumstances, is Miss Dressler's particular secret. And sitting on top of the talking picture world at that age, with all the world waiting for another chance to chuckle at one's antics, is her immediate position.

"A trouper, as all the stage world knows, takes things as they come," she comments. "When I left the stage behind and went into pictures, I got a big break right off the bat. The picture was 'Tilly's Punctured Romance.' And it was a riot. But Tilly's romance wasn't half as punctured as my hope was when no other similar picture came along."

"That's where the trouper comes in. The trouper is willing to play any part. They'll tell you out in Hollywood that I took the parts they gave me and asked no questions. All around you could see the youngsters going temperamental and demanding this role or that—it's a big laugh."

The talkies came and those "small parts" she played began to attract attention. Hollywood began to demand her and whereas, less than two years ago, she had decided to put the theatre completely on the shelf and retire on the money she had saved. "The Callahans and the Murphys" made this escape almost impossible.

Miss Dressler started her career with a circus. It so happened that the tent show had taken winter quarters near her home town, which is Coburn, Canada. A youngster of thirteen, or thereabouts, she tried to ride horseback and to learn other circus stunts and then changed her mind. At fourteen she was playing with a stock company.

WEIGHS 200 POUNDS

And then, by one of the amusing flukes that have kept projecting her into comedy, she found herself in a chorus. In an autobiography, Miss Dressler refers to herself as "the ugly duckling," for she was "a funny-looking cuss." They gave her a job, not because of pulchritude, but because she "looked funny" and the managers thought it would be a novelty to have one girl in the group who wasn't the usual carbon copy chorus.

"I had no schooling," she relates, "but believe me, I certainly learned geography at first hand, because I played every town in the country and then started abroad. I can't say that I had any special talent, but I did learn to sing and dance and, because people laughed, I worked up a specialty act of my own and began to be featured, but only after the toughest sort of plugging."

"The other day Joe Weber came out to Hollywood to work in a picture. I was with Joe back in the Weber and Fields days and he said—'You ain't as thin as you used to be, Marie, but you're four times as funny.' And I came back with: 'Well, I should worry about my girlish figure. What I want is to get the laughs.'"

Miss Dressler, by the way, hits the scales for a little better than 200 pounds. She pays no attention to diet and figures that the fatter she gets the funnier people will think she looks. She believes in "being yourself" and "leaving the high hats at home."

She takes a maternal interest in the young players, who come to her with their troubles. She gives them the aphoristic wisdoms that she has often set down: "Never carry sore throats and come into the lives of others" and "A smile is more soothing than a check."

LIBERALS NOT ALWAYS WRONG DICKIE ADMITS

Government Policy Is Right at Times, Conservative Says; Urges Protection

Admitting that the Liberal Party was not always wrong in its policies, but voicing his opinion that its general course had not been for the building up of Canada to the extent that it should be developed, C. H. Dickie, Conservative candidate for Nanaimo, addressed the electors of Ward Seven in St. Martin's Hall yesterday evening. He advocated the development of Canadian industries to a fuller extent and urged protection, saying that the trade balance between this land and the United States was most unequal. Canada was sending $500,000,000 worth of goods to the United States, while the latter was pouring $500,000,000 worth into Canada. Moreover, he contended, much of the U.S. stuff imported by Canada was made from raw material of this country.

He also alleged the Liberals had made disastrous treaties enough without perpetuating the Dunning budget. R. A. Wootton, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, and Fred Appleby, chairman of Ward Seven, spoke in support of the candidate.

EVELYN BRENT IN
AT THE CAPITOL

Bringing to the screen one of the most ingenious and thrilling stories since the advent of talking pictures, "Framed," all-talking drama, gave opening day audiences something to grow excited about yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

George Archambaud, the director, has taken his cameras into the very heart of the underworld and gives his audience the most intimate contact with romance, intrigue and hatred of gangland. It is without doubt the best story of its type yet seen in pictures. Gangster costumes, mammoth sets, shifting mobs and the destruction of a beautiful supper club by raiding officers of the law leave impressions that cannot be quickly forgotten.

Evelyn Brent superbly enacts the role of the claim gangster's daughter who has vowed vengeance for his unnecessary death. Admirably adapted for this type of role, Miss Brent rises to new heights in "Framed."

STOCK MARKET HAS
IMPORTANT PART IN DOMINION FEATURE

It was inevitable that the stock market crash should inspire the writers of movieland, and hence it is that Marie Dressler and Polly Moran of M-G-M cavorted across the screen of the Dominion Theatre last evening in an uproarious comedy titled "Caught Short."

"Caught Short" concerns the successes of Polly Moran, Washington Square (N.Y.) landlady, in the late lamented "bull market," and the eventual capitulation of her more conservative friend, Marie Dressler, Anita Page and Charles Morton furnish the juvenile love interest of the comedy and excellent character performances are given by T. Roy Barnes, Herbert Prior and Edward Dillon as boarders.

Director Chuck Blument has handled the offering deftly. The suspense leading up to the final crash of the market is particularly well done. The co-stars, Marie Dressler and Polly Moran, carry on in this picture with further the high reputation they have already attained as fun-makers supreme.

MANY CHINESE AT
THE COLISEUM IN
LLOYD'S NEW FILM

Confucius certainly must have handed down to the Chinese the secret of longevity. Harold Lloyd wanted four elderly Orientals for a part in "Welcome Danger," his first sound and dialogue production, which is now showing at the Coliseum Theatre. He called on Tom Gubbins, the sage of Los Angeles Chinatown, to supply them. Twenty-four hours later Gubbins had fifteen Chinamen at the studio, whose combined age was 1,140 years.

ALL-BRITISH FILM
OF SCOTLAND YARD
PLAYING THIS WEEK

"Blackmail," all-British, 100 per cent talking picture is being shown at the Columbia Theatre to-day, and the Victoria motion picture-going public will have an opportunity of judging for themselves what has been accomplished by England in the production of talking pictures.

Lois Wilson and
LAWRENCE GREY IN HIGH-CLASS STORY

Lois Wilson, co-featured with Lawrence Grey in "Temptation," the Columbia all-talking production at the Playhouse Theatre, reached the top of cinematic fame at one stride, only to learn that in order to achieve permanent success, she had to descend to the ground and climb up all over again. Many successful players had to go through the same procedure several times.

JOHN STUART WILL PLAY IN "KITTY"
HERE NEXT WEEK

John Stuart, who plays the leading male role in "Kitty," a World-Wide imported talking picture which is coming to the Playhouse Theatre next week, is well known for his part, that of a young English officer, inasmuch as he served during the war in the "Black Watch."

COUNCIL TOLD SAANICH HAS SPENT $160,332

Half-yearly Finance Statement Shows $113,942 Remains

The half yearly statement of the municipal finances of Saanich was presented to the council yesterday evening and showed $160,332 had been expended of the gross estimated revenue of $274,274.

The schools had cost $57,475 in the six months, and $45,405 remains in hand of the estimated cost of $102,880. The municipal operating account had required $102,880 in the half year and $70,487 remains to carry through the year without exceeding the estimate of $173,367 for all expenditures under the control of the council.

The roads had cost $50,303 during the half year, and $25,594 remains in hand of the $55,500 earmarked for highways and bridges. In addition there was in hand, on June 30, $3,967 of the fund of $7,575 earmarked for paving the West Saanich Road, recently declared a provincial arterial highway.

A bank loan of $130,000 had been arranged, and interest charges were shown at $1,587 for the half year.

LIBRARY COST $1,530

Library charges paid Victoria were $1,530, the estimate for the full year being $5,000. Public health, Health Centre, mothers' assistance and donations had cost $15,406, the appropriations for the year being $28,063.

The general income received, other than bank loan, had been $52,552, the estimate for the year, including the general levy of $64,918, being $173,344. This amount includes provincial grants estimated at $51,000, comprising $29,000 from liquor profits, $6,000 from part-mutual taxes and $16,000 on account of motor licenses.

ROAD WORK

The net expenditures by wards on roads maintenance were as follows: Ward One, $2,625; Ward Two, $3,904; Ward Three, $3,385; Ward Four, $3,019; Ward Five, $3,919; Ward Six, $5,091; Ward Seven, $4,471. The ward appropriations this year were struck at $7,500 each, with an added $1,000 to Ward Seven for development of Burnside Park.

Easy to Give
She (in tears): "You've broken the promise you gave me."
He: "Don't cry, sweetheart, I'll give you another."
